

SCHOLARSHIPS

Every Wabash student and admitted applicant is automatically considered for all the scholarships for which he is eligible. Except for the Lilly Award Scholarship, Fine Arts Fellowship Program and the Honor Scholarships described below, no particular application is required. Scholarship winners are expected to write thank you letters to the scholarship donors.

Lilly Award Scholarship at Wabash College. The Wabash College Lilly Award Scholarship, named to honor the Lilly family of Indiana, was established by the Wabash College Board of Trustees in 1974. Each year this program recognizes outstanding young men who show high potential and future promise—men who are likely to have an impact not only on Wabash, but on their community and thus on our world. The Lilly Award, the College's most prestigious scholarship, is renewable annually and covers the recipient's tuition, fees, room and board.

Wabash College Honor Scholarships. Wabash annually offers Honor Scholarships without regard to financial need. The scholarships are based on written examinations taken on the campus. Included in these Honor Scholarships are those endowed by the generous bequest to the College of Frederic M. Hadley; the McLain-McTurnan-Arnold Honor Scholarship endowed by the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Reid McLain '27, Mr. and Mrs. Clair McTurnan '10, and Mr. and Mrs. Kent M. Arnold '29; the Buren Fund Honor Scholarship administered by the National City Bank of Lebanon, Indiana; the George S. Olive III and E.W. Olive Honor Scholarship endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Olive; the McVie Honor Scholarships endowed by Mr. and Mrs. A. Malcolm McVie; the Louis J. Nardine Award established by Mrs. Gretchen N. Doris in memory of her father, Class of 1906; and the A. Malcolm '41 and Robert L. '37 McVie Honor Scholarship endowed by the estate of A. Malcolm McVie, Mrs. A. Malcolm McVie and friends of A. Malcolm McVie.

Wabash College Fine Arts Fellowships. The Fine Arts Fellowship Program at Wabash was established in 1987 to encourage the development of the fine arts within a rigorous liberal arts context. Based upon competition during Fine Arts Weekend on campus, the Fellowships are offered each year to students with demonstrated ability in one or more of the following: visual arts, creative writing, music, and theater. Fine Arts Fellows receive tuition grants worth up to $11,000 per year, regardless of financial need.

President's Scholarships are awarded for outstanding achievement in high school. Every admitted applicant is automatically considered for a President's Scholarship. President's Scholarships are supported by gifts from the Arthur Vining Davis Foundation. Wabash is a college sponsor of National Merit Scholarships.

Wabash College merit-based scholarships are renewable annually provided the student attains the cumulative grade point average and number of course credits required at the end of each academic year in order to make normal progress toward graduation.

Restricted Scholarships

These scholarships are awarded automatically by the College to students with demonstrated financial need. Applications are not required.

William D. Backman, Sr. Scholarship, established by William D. Backman, Jr., Class of 1953, in memory of his father, a former Trustee of the College and a member of the Class of 1924. The income is designated for financial aid to a student residing in Indiana.

The Bank One Scholarship, established by Bank One, Indianapolis, N.A., is given to a deserving high school graduate from the State of Indiana who is also a resident of Indiana.

Merle L. Bartoo Scholarship, established to help a non-fraternity student with financial need who is a speech and/or English major.

Thomas R. Bauman Scholarship, established in memory of Thomas R. Bauman, Class of 1985, by his family and friends. The income is used for a scholarship for an incoming freshman with preference first to a graduate of Zionsville Community High School, then any Boone County high school, then any student from Central Indiana, who best exemplifies Thomas R. Bauman's extra-curricular high school activities and rank.

Theodore Bedrick Scholarship Fund, established in memory of Dr. Bedrick H'52 by his family, friends, students, and colleagues as a fitting memorial to a devoted teacher and colleague which will allow his work at the College to continue long into the future. The scholarship is made to juniors majoring in a field in the humanities who expect to enter teaching at the secondary or college level.

Gordon G. and Julia Gregg Beemer Memorial Scholarship, established by their sons, Michael Gregg Beemer and Charles Gordon Beemer, and by their grandchildren, Leslie Beemer Wegner, Kathleen Beemer Filardi, Robert Michael Beemer, Jeffrey Marshall Beemer, and Jennifer Lynn Beemer, to honor Gordon G. Beemer H'96 and Julia Gregg Beemer. As the only presently living descendants of Caleb Mills, first principal and only teacher at the founding of Wabash College and founder of the Indiana Public School System, they wish to honor him and his deceased descendants and other ancestors of the donors who had a close relationship with Wabash College. A candidate should be, or be capable of becoming, a young man of vision, integrity, and leadership as exemplified by Caleb Mills and the Founding Fathers of Wabash and continued by the fiercely loyal members of the National Association of Wabash Men. Special consideration is given to any student in the Teacher Education Program and to any student interested in archival or biographical research.

Helen Oppy Binns Scholarship Fund, established by Helen Oppy Binns in memory of her parents, Thomas Franklin Oppy and Anna Gertrude Oppy, to assist deserving students with financial need, preference to be given to students from Coal Creek Township, Montgomery County, Indiana, and then to other such students from elsewhere in Indiana.

The David E. Bishop Scholarship Trust was endowed by David E. Bishop, Class of 1952.

Black-Vrooman Scholarship, established by Mrs. M. Lewis Marsh, Jr., in memory of her grandfather (John Charles Black, Class of 1862), her great uncle, (William Perkins Black, Class of 1864), and her cousin (John Black Vrooman, Class of 1921). The income is used for deserving students.

Brian Bosler Overseas Memorial Scholarship Fund, established by the alumni, the parents of members, and the members of Phi Delta Theta in memory of Brian Bosler, Class of 1987. The scholarship, with a $1,000 stipend for appropriate expenses, is awarded to a student, preference given to a member of Phi Delta Theta, planning on studying abroad in his junior year. Selection is based on overall accumulative grade point average with some consideration to campus involvement and personal character.

Ralph M. and Harry M. Bounnell Scholarships in Law and/or Medicine, established by Mrs. Jewell I. Bounnell in memory of her husband, Ralph M. Bounnell, Class of 1930, who practiced law in Crawfordsville from 1933 until his death in 1980, and of his father, Harry M. Bounnell, M.D., who practiced medicine in Waynetown and vicinity for more than 50 years. Awarded to members of the junior and senior classes who plan to study law or medicine, these scholarships may be continued for limited periods of graduate study in those fields. Awards are made on the basis of moral character, financial need, and other factors giving evidence of probable success in the respective professions. Preference is given to residents of Montgomery County, Indiana.

Austin H. Brown Scholarship Fund will be administered outside the traditional financial aid program. It will be able to meet special needs and provide a special recognition for Wabash students.

William Penn Bullock Scholarship, established in honor of William Penn Bullock, Class of 1940, by his daughter Joanne B. O'Neal and friends. Awarded to a junior or senior in the Economics Department with a high grade point average.

Albert M. and Virginia B. Campbell Memorial Scholarship Fund provides awards to needy juniors and seniors majoring in economics, who want to increase their understanding of the market economy, or to such students majoring in political science, who want to increase their understanding of a limited, decentralized federal form of government.

The Greater Chicago Area Alumni Scholarship, established in 1994 by the Chicago Area Alumni Association for outstanding high school students from the Chicago area. Candidates are judged on the following criteria: citizenship, academic record, and contributions in the high school and the community.

Class of 1936 Scholarship Fund, income from which is available to a junior or a senior who has financial need, is in the upper half of his class, and has demonstrated his capacity for leadership by effective participation in extracurricular activities.

Class of 1937 Scholarship was established by members of the Class of 1937 upon the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of their graduation.

Class of 1938 Scholarship was established by members of the Class of 1938 upon the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of their graduation.

Class of 1940 Scholarship to be awarded to a sophomore, junior, or senior of distinction who did not as an entering freshman receive a merit scholarship or who has lost his financial support but whose performance since then deserves recognition.

Class of 1941 Scholarship was established by the members of the Class of 1941 for young men showing intellectual, academic, artistic, athletic promise, or some combination of those qualities.

Class of 1943 Memorial Scholarship, was established in May, 1998, at the 55th anniversary of the Class of 1943. The scholarship honors the members of the class who have passed away and will be awarded to qualified and needy students.

Clauser Family Scholarship established by Allan D. Clauser, Class of 1950, supported by his wife, son, Allan, Jr. '81, and friends for the benefit of a student from Montgomery County, Indiana.

Albert M. Cole Scholarship, endowed by a bequest from Mr. Cole, is given to students desiring to enter the teaching profession.

Jeanne C. and W. Dale Compton Scholarship Fund, endowed by gifts from Dr. and Mrs. Compton '49 and the Ford Motor Company, supports scholarships for students who plan majors in Division I (Science/Math).

Crabbs-Shaw Family Fund, established in honor and memory of four Wabash generations of the Crabbs-Shaw family, to be used for faculty salaries or student scholarships.

Fred and Elizabeth Daugherty Scholarship Fund provides income for needy prospective students.

Paul U. and Elizabeth K. Deer Scholarship established in memory of Paul U. and Elizabeth K. Deer to provide support for qualifying students who intend to pursue careers in business.

Mary Louise Denney Woodwind Scholarship. Mary Louise Denney, wife of Professor Paul T. Mielke, participated in College musical organizations between 1957 and 1985, as principal flute in the concert band and chamber orchestra and as a member of a baroque quartet. This scholarship is established in recognition of her service to the College. It is awarded each year to a flutist who is active in Wabash musical organizations, with maintenance for four years depending upon continued music participation and progress toward a degree in course. Failing a flutist, preference will be given in order to performers on oboe, bassoon, clarinet, or French horn. Selection of the Denney Scholar is vested in the Dean's Office, with consultation of the Music Department.

The Victor A. DeRose "Legacy of Philanthropy" Scholarship, established in 1990, provides assistance to sophomore, junior or senior students of good character. The goal of the Fund is to assist as many qualified students as possible by selecting students who are of good character and stand in the top third of the class. Importance is placed on student interest in pursuing an M.B.A; majoring in economics or science; fluency in foreign language and demonstrated leadership.

Lee Detchon-Beta Theta Pi Scholarship Fund, established by the estate of Lee Detchon, Class of 1923. Income from the fund to be given each year to a member of Tau Chapter of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

Paul Logan DeVerter, Sr. Memorial Scholarship Fund for Chemistry established by Ruth Hendricks DeVerter in memory of her husband Paul, Class of 1915. The income from the fund is awarded to an outstanding native Indiana upper classman, who is most likely to pursue a career in chemistry or chemical engineering upon graduation.

The Lucinda Diddie Memorial Scholarship was established in 1987 by Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Diddie to honor and memorialize Dr. Diddie's mother. Lucinda Diddie was a very enthusiastic supporter of Wabash, and the scholarship is awarded to a graduate from the Crown Point area high schools. The selection will be made on the basis of scholarship, character and participation in high school activities.

The Donald M. DuShane Memorial Scholarship provides scholarship support with preference for a student in political science.

Luther E. Ellis Memorial Scholarship, established by his widow, is awarded annually to a senior with financial need who demonstrates the high intelligence, citizenship, and integrity characteristic of Mr. Ellis, Class of 1914.

Isaac C. Elston, Jr., Scholarship Fund, established by Mrs. Florence Elston-Beemer to provide a scholarship each spring to an outstanding and worthy junior entering his senior year the next fall. Mr. Elston was Class of 1894.

Foster-Ames Scholarship, maintained by funds given in 1946 and 1982 by families, friends, and members of the wire-bound box industry in memory of E. E. Ames, Class of 1903, and Thomas I. Foster, Class of 1914. The student qualifying for this scholarship must be able to do satisfactory college work, but academic excellence is less important than character, qualities of leadership, and need for financial assistance. Preference is given to sons and grandsons of employees' families of the wire-bound box industry. If no such candidate from the industry qualifies, Wabash College may grant this scholarship to any student meeting the qualifications with demonstrated need.

The Barbara and Galan W. "Dutch" Freise '48 Scholarship will provide need-based financial assistance to Wabash students from the rural areas of Illinois. Need should take precedence over academic credentials when awarding this scholarship.

Albert M. Gavit Scholarship, established by his widow, Mrs. Ann Gavit, awarded to a Wabash student entering the sophomore year whose freshman record shows the greatest potential for original and creative work in the humanities. Mr. Gavit was Class of 1947.

Scholarship And Tuition Awards From Endowment

Besides the scholarships previously described, which are assigned on the basis of terms set forth in the supporting funds, the College offers a number of scholarships financed from endowment. These are available to assist students of unusual promise who otherwise would be unable to attend Wabash. To establish eligibility students must file Financial Aid applications with the College Scholarship Service each year. Awards vary in number and value from year to year and are related always to the need of the individual. These awards may continue throughout the student's college course, provided that he maintains a satisfactory college record and that his need for assistance continues. In granting these scholarships and tuition awards, the Financial Aid Committee takes into consideration four principal criteria:

1. The extent of need.
2. Academic record.
3. Personality, character, and qualities of leadership.
4. Excellence in student activities.

The income from the following funds contributes to the support of the program described in the preceding paragraph:

Byron Randolph Russell and Edward Payson Ames Scholarship Fund, established by Elsie R. Ames in memory of her father, Byron Randolph Russell (Class of 1872), and her husband, Edward Payson Ames (Class of 1871).

Georgia F. Arnkens Memorial Fund, established in memory of Conrad Arnkens, Class of 1953, by his widow, to be used for poor, needy and deserving students.

Ruth M. Asbury Scholarship Fund, established by the wills of Max Asbury, Class of 1931, and his wife Ruth.

Athens City Scholarship Fund established by members of the Crawfordsville Wabash Club.

George M. Baldwin Fund, established by Colonel George M. Frazor to be used for the financial needs of a worthy student.

The Dr. Rudolph C. Bambas Scholarship Fund was established by his wife, Frieda Bambas, in honor of Dr. Bambas, Class of 1937. He had an outstanding academic life as a professor of English and was a loyal alumnus all his life. The Bambas Fund is a permanent part of the Endowment Fund.

Robert J. Beck-James D. Price Scholarship, was established in memory of Robert J. Beck, Class of 1920, by his friends and by his associates in Thomson McKinnon Securities, Inc., and in honor of James D. Price, Class of 1960, by Alex S. Carroll.

Barry Bone Scholarship Fund established by Phi Gamma Delta fraternity brothers and friends of Barry P. Bone, Class of 1983.

Ruth McB. Brown Scholarship Fund

R. D. Brown Memorial Scholarships established by Jean Brown Hendricks.

The Howard Buenzow Scholarship Fund, the income of which is to be used for student financial assistance with preference to students from Lane Technical High School in Chicago.

Mallory and Company, Inc., and for many years a civic leader in Indianapolis and Indiana. The fund is made possible by an initial grant from the P. R. Mallory Company Foundation, Inc., supplemented by gifts from numerous friends and business associates of Mr. Cain. Both academic ability and financial need are taken into consideration in awarding this scholarship, but these considerations are less important than the character, personality, and leadership potential of the candidates.

Martha A. Caperton Scholarship Fund established by a bequest from Mrs. Caperton, mother of Woods A. Caperton, Class of 1932.

Central Newspapers, Inc., Scholarship Fund provides scholarship support with preference for students interested in journalism.

The Class of 1907 Memorial Fund established by members of the class upon the fifteenth anniversary of their graduation.

Robert Mitchum H'59 served as Director of the Glee Club for twenty-two years starting in 1947.

Joseph O'Rourke, Jr. Prize in Speech recognizes the best senior project as determined by the faculty of the Speech Department. The senior project program was initiated by Professor O'Rourke H'65 in the 1970s, and the prize, funded by members of the O'Rourke family and friends, honors this program and other contributions by Professor O'Rourke to teaching and learning during his 37 years of service to Wabash College.

Patterson-Golberger Freshman Journalism Award, established by Professor of English Thomas P. Campbell and his family, is presented to the member of the freshman class who, in the opinion of the Board of Publications, has contributed most significantly to journalism in his first year at Wabash College. The prize honors Thomas McDonald Patterson, W1865, who owned Denver's Rocky Mountain News, and Alexander Golberger, W1925, who as chairman of the Board of Publications while a student at Wabash established the College as a member of Pi Delta Epsilon national journalism society.

David W. Peck Medal, awarded each year by the President of the College to a Wabash senior and to a practicing attorney to recognize "promise or eminence in the law." The Peck Medal is made possible by a gift of John P. Collett in recognition of Mr. Peck's distinguished career as lawyer and judge. Mr. Peck was Class of 1922.

The Robert O. Petty Prize in Writing, established by Dr. W. Franklin Harris (Class of 1964) in memory of Dr. Petty, Professor of Biology at Wabash from 1959-1990, is given annually to encourage and recognize student writing that draws on the fertile boundary of the sciences and the humanities. An ecologist as well as a poet and nature writer, Professor Petty held that "only at the margins of knowledge can we discover some essential, critical perspective of the field we labor in, and come to a better definition of what lies at the center..." His quest for a truer perception of our place in nature and nature's place in us was what mattered most.

Phi Beta Kappa Prize, established to encourage original work of high creative and scholarly merit, as distinct from proficiency in normal course work. It is a cash prize given annually by the Wabash chapter of Phi Beta Kappa to that undergraduate who is judged to have produced the most original and meritorious piece of work, whether artistic or analytical. Nominations of student contributions are made by the members of the entire teaching faculty, and the entries are judged by a special committee of the Chapter.

The Physics Department Writing Prize is an award established by the physics department to encourage and reward quality writing in physics. It will be given to the physics student who, in the judgment of the physics department, has written a paper on original experimental or theoretical work that demonstrates the highest standards of scientific writing. The prize will be a physics book selected by the department, and the student's name will be added to a plaque displayed in Goodrich Hall.

The J. Crawford Polley Prize in Mathematics is offered annually by the mathematics department for meritorious work by a student in mathematical writing and problem solving. The prize honors J. Crawford Polley H'33, who was professor of mathematics at Wabash from 1929-1966. Work considered for the prize includes short articles and interesting problems with elegant solutions. Entries are judged on their mathematical content and expository style.

Distinguished Senior in Psychology Award, given to the senior Psychology major who best represents the department's ideal for outstanding research, scholarship, and service.

Richard O. Ristine Law Award, presented each year at the Peck Awards Banquet to one or more individuals in recognition of their contributions to Wabash and the practice of the Law. The Award is named in honor of a man whose service to both Wabash and the Law are inspiring. Ristine graduated from Wabash, summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, in 1941. He attended the Columbia University Law School and received his degree in 1943. The recipients of the Richard O. Ristine Law Award shall be honored for a love for the Law and a love for Wabash that Richard O. Ristine spent a lifetime upholding.

Benjamin A. Rogge Memorial Award, an award to that academically outstanding member of the senior class who best articulates the free-market philosophy and ideals of Ben Rogge H'53. The winner is selected by the Economics Department and the Rogge Memorial Committee.

Lewis Salter Memorial Award, established by the Class of 1990, the award is given to that member of the junior class who best exemplifies the characteristics of scholarship, character, leadership, and service Dr. Lewis Salter H'57 embodied as a Wabash faculty member and as Wabash's twelfth president.

Stephen Schmutte Prize, awarded for the outstanding student paper in economics. The prize shall be awarded each year to the student paper which, in the judgment of the department, best reflects the qualities of cogent analysis and clarity of exposition which were the hallmarks of Stephen Schmutte '66, a dedicated and very effective teacher in the department 1968-2000.

Senior Award of Merit is awarded annually by the Student Senate in conjunction with the National Association of Wabash Men to the senior who, throughout his years at Wabash College, has demonstrated outstanding achievement in scholarship, service, and extracurricular activities. The award is particularly meaningful in that the entire nominating process and final selection of the recipient are performed solely by Wabash students. The honor is truly a reflection of the beliefs of the recipient's peers.

N. Ryan Shaw II Award, a Wabash captain's chair, presented annually to the senior chosen by the Political Science Department as the Department's outstanding major. The award is given by Virginia J. Shaw in memory of her husband, Class of 1953.

Warren Wright Shearer Prize in Economics, presented annually to that student who, by vote of the faculty of the Economics Department, has the best command of economic theory. This prize is established to recognize the contributions made by Warren Wright Shearer '36 in his long years of service to Wabash College. As an economist and a teacher of economics, he demanded of himself and his students a thorough mastery of the analytical tools of the economist.

Frank H. Sparks Award, given annually to a senior "who has done much during the past year to promote the true spirit and purpose of Wabash College." Selection is made by the Dean of Students and the Dean of the College. Such factors as general attitude, participation in extracurricular activities and athletics, scholarship, and all-around personal achievement are considered.

Dean Stephens Award, a memorial to Dean Stephens, a member of the Wabash College coaching staff who was killed in an airplane accident in October 1958, given annually to that member of the junior class who best reflects the broad intellectual and personal interests, the high moral courage, and the humane concerns of Dean Stephens himself.

Stephens-Hall Senior Scholarship, established in memory of Waldo Stephens H'72 and Scott Keith and Andrew David Hall, presented each spring to a deserving senior of demonstrated worth who plans to continue his education.

The Ryan Champion Theater Performance Award. This award is given annually by the Wabash College Theater Department to a student demonstrating excellence in the areas of acting and directing. The award honors the memory of Ryan Champion, a member of the Class of 2007, who died in an automobile accident in 2004. Ryan's participation in theater production work in the musical 1776, produced in October 2004, set a standard of quality and commitment recipients of this award will be expected to achieve. The endowment for The Ryan Champion Theater Performance award was established through a gift from Mr. Gregg Theobald, Class of 1992, and Ryan's friends, family, and classmates.

Norman E. Treves Science Award, an annual award to a member of the senior class concentrating in Division I, selected by the faculty of that division, who has shown the greatest progress academically and as an individual during his junior year. It was established by Dr. Norman E. Treves, Class of 1915.

Underwood Award in Chemistry, presented annually to the junior student majoring in chemistry who, in the opinion of the department, is most deserving. The cash award was established by Mr. J. E. Underwood, Jr. and Caroline Underwood in memory of their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Julius E. "Jude" Underwood, Sr., Class of 1911.

Pete Vaughan Award, presented annually by the National Association of Wabash Men to the outstanding athlete of the year. This award recognizes the thirty years of distinguished service that Robert E. (Pete) Vaughan H'54 gave to Wabash College as football coach and athletic director.

Wall Street Journal Award, given annually to the senior economics major who has exhibited the best analytical ability in his major field. The recipient is selected by vote of the Economics Department faculty. The award consists of a one-year subscription to the Wall Street Journal plus an appropriate engraved paperweight.

William Nelson White Scholarship Award, established in 1998 by Luke White '34 and W.N. White Farms Inc. to honor the memory of Luke's father, William Nelson White, a lawyer in Covington, Ind. The recipient of the scholarship shall be a senior selected by the College on the basis of scholarship, personal integrity, and an understanding of the professional requirements of the practice of law.

Eliot Churchill Williams Fund is an endowed fund established by family and friends in memory of Professor Williams H'53 who served the College and the Biology Department from 1948-1983. The endowment supports the Eliot Churchill Williams Undergraduate Prize, awarded to an undergraduate student who is majoring in biology.
