E. Financial Documentation

U.S. visa regulations require that admission to the College be based upon both academic qualifications and satisfactory evidence of funds to meet all of the expenses that will be incurred during the student's proposed program of study. Therefore, your application will not be considered complete and no offer of admission or I-20 will be provided until we have received your completed Wabash College International Finances Form with the required certified financial documents attached, which verify the existence of stated funds. If you need to apply for financial assistance, also complete the Financial Aid Application attached to the Finances Form. You, your parents, and sponsors must sign the forms and return all documentation to our office by the appropriate deadline.

F. Written Statement

On the reverse side of this sheet, write or attach your essay of 350 words or more. This essay is to help us understand your thoughts, feelings, personality, priorities, reasoning powers, etc. Therefore, do not repeat information which is contained elsewhere on this application; but, rather, discuss an important event or literary work which has had a great influence upon your life. You may also expand on your educational goals and why you have chosen these goals. If you have previously attended another U.S. college/university, you must also include a statement as to why you wish to transfer to Wabash.

G. Signature of Authorization

Your application will not be considered complete unless you have certified below that you have read and understand the following statement:

I certify that the information contained in this application is complete and accurate, and I understand that submission of inaccurate information can be sufficient cause for refusal of admission, cancellation of admission, or suspension from the College.
