Dear 49ers:

The campus is quiet this week. Wabash is on spring break, and guys are all over the map. The baseball team will start spring training with a swing thru Georgia, Tennessee, and Kentucky. This will give the coaches a chance to evaluate the team, and especially the freshmen, before the upcoming season.

I have to mention the following: Wabash captured its third straight NCAC indoor track meet title, this past weekend at the College of Wooster. Wabash head coach, Clyde Morgan and his staff were honored after the meet as coaches of the year. Some Little Giants!! And just this past Saturday, March 9th....Senior Jake Waterman became Wabash College's first-ever, two-time national track champion with a dominating win in the 800 meter run at the 2013 NCAA Division III Indoor Track and Field Championships.

Of course, the most important news - Wabash has a new President, Gregory Hess will be our 16th President. Dr. Hess comes to Wabash from Claremont McKenna College. He is presently Dean of the Faculty, and Vice President of Academic Affairs, he will officially take office July 1. Hess and his wife Lora have two daughters, Abigail and Meredith.

The Center for College Affordability and Productivity ranked the faculty at Wabash 21st in the Top 25 College's in the country. Wabash was the only college in Indiana named in the Top 25.

We send our sympathy to Dick Cherry. Dick's wife Liz passed away December 12th. Liz's Memorial service was held on December 29th at the Perry Highway Lutheran Church.

Also, I received notice from the Alumni Office that John D. Hull, III of Cincinnati, OH passed away December 27th in Marco Island, FL. He was a longtime executive of Proctor & Gamble. John is survived by his wife of 62 years, Arlene "Penny" Hull, and their children, J. Daniel Hull of San Diego, David A. Hull (Maureen) of Cincinnati and Rebecca Gorman (David) of Atlanta, daughter-in-law Pamela Larsen (Dan), and seven grandchildren: David Hull, Jr., Kelley Hull, Katie Hull, David (Erin) Gorman, Jr., Chris Gorman, Carrie Gorman, and James Gorman. We send our sympathy to his family.

We have nine classmates who have made a contribution to Wabash.

Again, thanks for your support.

If you know of a young man from your community that might potentially be a Wabash Man, get his name to the Admissions office at 800.345.5385. Wabash has over 600 referrals from Alumni and friends and they want that number to be over 1,000. Competition for college age young men is fierce.
