This past Friday Vaino called me to ask if I'd drop a note to let you know that he has not absconded to Acapulco. As you know, Vaino has used more hips than the Mayo clinic. This last one was rough. That plus a bout of illness has kept him incommunicado, but he is recovering and I can testify that he sounded good on the phone. You'll hear from him again before too long. In the meantime, I'm a substitute.

First, Vaino wants me to remind you that June 30th is the end of the college's fiscal year. What better way to welcome our new President than to help make his first fiscal year a great one, and if you need another incentive, how about a Happy One Hundredth and Seventy Fifth birthday gift to old Wabash!

I can pass along a few notes about '55ers. Both Goto and Tom Hays were here for the fall board meeting and the inauguration. Marion and I had dinner recently with Nancy and Charlie Hardy. They've moved to Crawfordsville to be near their daughter Jane (who is teaching linguistics for the college) and their two delightful grandsons. But the Hardys will soon be off to their home on a lovely Wisconsin lake and only snow will drive Charlie back.

We had a good visit with Cliff and Ann Wagner this fall when they had lunch with us before the DePauw game.

I hear from Mac Laetsch. He's just co-chaired a successful fund drive for the Bancroft Library at Berkeley.

To unhappy news. You may have read of the deaths of Allen Dewey and Jack Kellogg. Both missed the 50th because of health problems.

I don't want to close without saying if you haven't met Pat and Chris White I hope you soon will. They were made for Wabash College and I see continuing good days for the college under their leadership.

For Vaino, Vic Powell
