December 2009

Dear Men and Women of '57:

This was a great year for the Wabash football team--- won the DePauw game; lost to Wittenberg by 3 points; ended regular season 9-1; competed in the Division III play-offs, losing to Illinois Wesleyan. The Dallas area Wabash and DePauw alumni gathered at a downtown bar to watch the Monon Bell Game--- a tradition going back at least 25 years when the play by play broadcast was relayed via telephone.

GENE LYMAN visited his sister who lives in Arlington, TX over the Thanksgiving holiday. Jeananne and I met them for lunch and had a pleasant visit, sharing news and perspectives on Wabash.

I represented Wabash College at the inauguration of Austin College's 15th president (first female president) located in Sherman, TX. I was one of 50 college/university individuals who participated in the processional in cap, gown and hood as part of the program. Austin College has a 1400 student body and is in the conference with DePauw, Sewanee, etc.

Sadly and with condolences to the families---we lost two members of our class:

STILLMAN "SPIKE" GOODMAN (1934 – 2009) passed away Nov. 8th at Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix. Goodman attended Wabash College, was an Army Intelligence Russian Language interpreter and graduated from Western Michigan University. He was in sales and marketing in the packaging industry and an avid golfer.

CLARENCE E. DICK died July 26, 2009. The college received information from his widow, Shirley Dick of Hinkley, Ohio.

Now is a great time to make a contribution to Wabash College. Any and all gifts are appreciated and will be used wisely. The higher the Alumni participation percentage, the better for Wabash!

I wish you peace in your lives, happy holidays and a healthy 2010.

Sincerely,

John
