Gentlemen:

The class of 2018 is here. If only you could be here to share in the excitement! Meeting our students and young alumni is a real tonic for me. There are so many capable and enthusiastic young men.

Recruitment for this year's freshmen went well for Wabash. DePauw fell 100 short. Please send the name of any potential student to Admissions, even those whom you only know through your local newspaper. Over one-third of our accepted recommends actually become Wabash men.

Autumn leaves and Wabash Football and Soccer. Go Wabash!

One of our own, John Hollett will be inducted into the Wabash Athletics Hall of Fame the evening before this year's Monon Bell Game which is November 15th. Congratulations John, you are Some Little Giant!

Our reunion in June allowed us to get to know each other better and was enjoyed by all. Tino Balio and wife came back for the first time since our graduation. While driving on Wabash Avenue last week, I saw and called "hello" to Burt Carlson, walking towards downtown Crawfordsville from the Wabash campus. Burt had talked to students about his experience as a Fulbright Scholar and in working for the Federal Government.

You are always welcome to come back to visit classes, meet professors or attend events. The Alumni Office can assist you in planning a visit. Local alums Henthorn, Horner, Mallot, Sperry and I would have more general information. By the way, Bob Charles, a newly constructed McDonald's opened in June on Crawfordsville's hwy 231 south. The area has a Super Walmart, Home Depot, Super Kroger, plus many other stores and businesses - at least a dozen fast food places.

The latest Bachelor is available on-line each Friday at <http://www.wabash.edu/bachelor/>.

Actual excavation for the new 139 room student housing started last week on the west side of campus.

In closing, we want to thank all of you who gave to Wabash in the 2013-2014 school year. You are the men who insure Wabash stays strong:
