

Memo, Class of '63 - 50th Reunion

16 May 2013

Fellow Little Giants of the Class of '63,

I guarantee this is my last epistle concerning our upcoming reunion on May 31st and June 1st and 2nd. This is a short reminder concerning a few key points.

-Make sure you are registered for all the events/meals that you want to participate in. All you need to do is go to the College website, click on "Big Bash" and follow the prompts or click on the link below.

-Remember that the week-end is casual. Many of you have ordered T-Shirts and they will no doubt get lots of use. If, however, you would want to wear a sport coat to certain events that is entirely up to you.

-Don't forget to practice "Old Wabash". And, unfortunately, that means both verses, refrain and chorus. I am assured that there will be no hair clippers in sight. However, it would be great to win the prize for the best rendition of our school song.

-Caleb Mills House will be a focal point for the class of '63. If you want to meet up with old friends or just need a break, go there.

-Don't forget Scarlet Yarns. This is an opportunity that lets you tell your favorite Wabash stories and have them recorded for posterity. Be thinking about what those stories are.

That's it. We are now hoping for sunny days in the mid 70 degrees range and looking forward to having a great time. Hope to see you in a few days.

Cheers,

Larry Hutchison
Reunion Chairman
