September 2009

Dear fellow classmates,

Our 45th reunion in June is now a fond memory. It was a weekend full of good weather, good events, good food, and great fellowship. I'm sure all who attended are looking forward to our 50th in 2014. For those who were not there I sincerely hope you will plan on attending our 50th.

We are now on a sort of fiscal cusp, the dividing line between thanking and soliciting. The emphasis here is simply a big thanks to all who made contributions to the college this past year. Although many of us have made provisions in our wills and trusts for the college, which I refer to as posthumous tithing, we still need to continue a pattern of annual giving. Oops, I just slid past the thanks issue. Once again, though, thank you all for your participation.

We recently received notice from classmate Ed Sowers informing us that he has recently joined the firm of Brannon and Associates PC where he continues to practice patent and trademark law with an emphasis on chemical and biochemical areas. Congratulations Ed.

Finally, as of Friday, September 4th, I will retire. Coincidentally that will be the day we install caller ID. I will continue to be involved with my Church, Wabash, the Betas, Masons, Shriners, and C.O.P. (Community Oriented Policing). The big difference is that I will have the luxury of determining my own schedule. Connie has given me a 47" flat screen TV for my retirement present, so I'll have to devote some time to that.

We hope to see some of you at football games this fall. It looks like another outstanding season for the team.

Regards,

Ron Nichols

Gentlemen of the Class of 1964:

I just want to add my thanks to all of you who helped the college reach its goal for the Annual Fund this past year. I know that some of you contributed more than once to meet the challenge of raising a million dollars in June.

Be well, do good work, and keep in touch!
