Class of 1965

May 20, 2015

Gentlemen,

The Big Bash is just around the corner. As I write this, the Class of 1965 Memory Book is in your hands (thanks to editor Phil Wescott!) and we have 62 members of the class registered for the Big Bash. That number is just 8 shy of the all time 50th reunion record and makes us one of the top 50th reunion classes back for the Bash. It isn't too late – registration is open until May 27, 2015!

We'll kick off the reunion weekend a little early with a reception and dinner at the Crawfordsville Country Club on Thursday, June 4, 2015. If you have not yet replied that you will be there, please call (765-361-6360) or email (bazzanih@wabash.edu) Heather Bazzani at Wabash. I think we have approximately 35 attending so far. It will be a nice, casual way to start our reunion and catch up on life-long friendships.

You can see the entire reunion schedule here:
www.wabash.edu/alumni/reunion/schedule

I want to draw your attention to a couple of items on that schedule.

- a. Friday evening (June 5, 2015) at the Big Bash reception and dinner we will receive our 50th reunion medallions. We'll also

- present the College with a ceremonial check representing our class gift to the College – it just might be a record breaker! If you can be there, great. If you won't be in town until Saturday, don't worry, we'll reserve a medallion for you.
- b. Bob Witherspoon will be our song leader at Chapel Sing on Saturday morning, June 6. Some of you will recall the Class of 1985 won in 2010. That result was questionable, to say the least. This year we'll leave no doubt, so study that second verse.
 - c. Through the vision and generosity of Allan Anderson, the college has made several reunion upgrades for our class. One of those is that Caleb Mills house (just north of the Library) will be our exclusive reunion headquarters for Friday and Saturday of the Big Bash. We'll have snacks, soft drinks, and a cool place to relax and catch up on both days. We'll also have an awning in the back yard – our plan is to also hold our reception there before we parade over to Salter Hall for our class dinner on Saturday evening. Thank you, Allan, for your leadership and generosity!

If you know of any men who are alumni of our class and have not yet registered, please urge them to reconsider and get on the list. We're going to have a great time!

Sincerely,

Phil Young
