Dear Men of '66,

Our 50th reunion is fast approaching (June 3-5) and there are two deadlines that I would like to point out again.

DEADLINE #1-Shirts and hats order form deadline is April 30! You should have received that form recently via snail mail.

DEADLINE#2-Motel reservations need to be made by May 10! Our block of rooms is at the Hampton Inn, telephone 765-362-8884, code W50, manager Nikki Copeland. Here is the current list of those registered as of 4/11.

Charlie Bell	Bill Berry	Cal Black	Jerry Blossom
Steve Brenner	Lynn Dick	John Fargher	Bill Ferguson
Jay Fisher	John Flanagan	Louise Forsythe	Greg Garman
John Gisler	Dick Gray	Larry Haugh	John Herrin
Steve Hildebrand	Jon Holdread	Rachel Jullian	David Kendall
David Krattebol	Bill Lawler	John Lennes	Ned Luce
Roger Lumpp	Peer Lykke	Mel Machuca	John Meng
Squier Neal	Mark Nilsson	Mark Paulson	John Phares
Tony Ridolfo	Bill Robb	Ken Schild	Bob Smith
Walt Snodell	Bill Summers	George Taybos	Roger Thies
Rod Townsend	Joe Trimmer	Stan Vogel	David Ware
Mel Washburn	Dennis Whigham	Tom Wilhelmus	Jerry Wood
Ken Wood

We currently have 58 class mates registered to attend Big Bash, but we would like to exceed 76. If we have 77 registered we can set a new class record. If you have not registered yet, please do so ASAP-you won't want to miss this terrific reunion and WE WANT YOU THERE! You can register at <https://www.wabash.edu/alumni/reunion/signup>.

While we were freshmen at Wabash, Ralph Edwards (This is Your Life TV show) and Will Hays '37 produced a short video entitled "Where is Wabash?" This is really worth watching, somewhat nostalgic and you can view it by going to this link:

The memory books for our 50th reunion are to be mailed to all classmates on 4/22. Look for this in the mail-Charlie Bell and John Flanagan did a terrific job putting this wonderful book together!

We are honored that Judy Schmutte, Louise Forsythe and Joe Trimmer will attend the banquet on Friday night and receive the 50th medallions in memory of their husbands, Steve and Bob, and brother, Bob, respectively.

Jim Roeder sent an email on 4/16 indicating that he is getting stronger and doing well in his recovery from cancer surgery. He had planned on attending Big Bash but is unable to do so; however, he said he is mailing in his donation to the College to ensure he is included in the donor list for our class.

While we are still a few weeks out, we are guardedly optimistic that we will be successful in setting new records for both the size of our class gift and the percentage of class members participating. Do not miss your chance to be part of Wabash history. Send your check payable to Wabash College in care of David Troutman. Dave Krattebol and Roger Lumpp, our co-gift committee chairmen, will be able to relax a bit in May if you get your check in by the end of April!

Thank you for all you do for Wabash and for THE CLASS OF WABASH!

"These fleeting years..."
