Dear Men of '66,

Thanks to Jay Williams for sending emails that highlight national issues in higher education. As a member of the board of trustees, Jay obviously is following these matters as to any impact they might have on Wabash.

I have received two nice notes from Hobby Elliott. He advised that he is now a member of the Calligraphy Guild of Indiana. He also has a new address: 2626 George Street, Apt. 612, Logansport, IN 46947.

Lee Cline sent a nice letter and enclosed several photographs of his family. Lee and Betty now have two grandchildren-the most recent addition was Emma Gail on 12/21/12. Lee also enclosed an article from the Jackson, MS newspaper about the death of one of the last living suspects in the Mississippi Burning case. This suspect, Olen Burrage, owned the property where the three civil rights workers were buried. Lee and Betty reside at 366 Lower Myrick Road, Laurel, MS 39443.

Here is an impressive press release about Dick Gray.

Dick Gray '66: New Super of PGA Village and PGA Country Club

The Professional Golf Association of America (PGA) announces that Dick Gray '66 has been named the Superintendent of PGA Village and the PGA Country Club in Port St. Lucie, FL. "Gray will oversee the grounds and maintenance of three courses designed by Tom Fazio and Pete Dye at PGA Golf Club; the 35-acre PGA Center for Golf Learning and Performance golf instruction, practice, technology and fitness park; and the private 18-hole PGA Country Club, designed by Jim and George Fazio.”

Dick graduated from Wabash with a degree in Botany, and performed graduate work with the Turf Management Department at Purdue University, before earning a Master’s of Science in Restaurant, Hotel and Institutional Management from Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Charlie and Janet Bell recently visited us in Phoenix. We traveled to Prescott, AZ and had lunch in the famous Palace Bar on Whiskey Row. The next morning we set off for Sedona and the Grand Canyon. The trip from Prescott to Sedona has 158 hairpin turns in the mountains in a seven mile stretch. I did not see much of the scenery but do have an indelible image of double yellow lines! We then returned to Phoenix before Charlie and Janet left for Palm Desert, CA to see Stan’64 and Nancy (Janet’s sister) Sibell. Charlie and Stan played in a golf tournament, and according to Charlie they finished “just out of the money!”

President Pat White and his wife, Chris, are in their final months at Wabash College. Pat will become the interim president at Millikin University in Decatur, IL on July, 1. Both Pat and Chris have had a tremendous impact on Wabash and the City of Crawfordsville. I hope many of you will take the time to thank them for all they have done for our alma mater. Pat and Chris White-Some Little Giants!

The fiscal year at Wabash closes on June 30, 2013 and I would like to encourage each of you to make a contribution to the College if you have not done so to date. As in our days as students, the current students-even cash payers-do not pay the full price of their education. The remaining costs are paid by contributions from alumni and friends of the College. This enables many bright young men with limited resources the opportunity to attend Wabash. Thanks to each of you for all you do for Wabash in so many different ways.

“These fleeting years....”
