Class Agent's Letter For The Wabash College Class of 1971
May 2, 2011

You Don't Need To Show Your Birth Certificate
To Come To Our 40th Reunion—June 3-5—
Sign Up Online By The May 25 Deadline!

Sign Up Online For The Reunion;
Many Classmates And Wives Have Already

Come to the 2011 Big Bash - our 40th reunion, June 3-5. Register online at www.wabash.edu/alumni/reunion/signup. Some details of the reunion and instructions to order a 1971 polo shirt are on the next page. The 25 classmates who have registered are listed on page 3. I will give a free pitcher of beer to any classmate who can correctly identify the classmates portrayed above. If you don't drink beer, I will give you the pitcher and keep the beer.

Reunion Details

The entire reunion weekend schedule is at:
www.wabash.edu/alumni/reunion/schedule

The college has planned several activities for alumni and wives. There is the ability to pick and choose, but there will be several things that we as a Class will do as a Class.

On Saturday we need to do the following as a class:

1. Chapel Sing at 11 a.m.
2. Class photo at 1:06 p.m.
3. Classmate Bill Kovac's colloquium at 2:30 p.m.
4. Class Banquet at 5:30 p.m.

Class of 1971 Polo Shirts

Order a special Class of 1971 polo shirt by sending me your size and a check for $30 made payable to me at Suite 2410, 211 N. Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204. The shirt is shown on page 1. It says:

Wabash 71
That's My Class, Not My Age

Order now because I have to place the order soon. Casual attire is appropriate for the entire weekend.

Souvenirs

The Class of 1971 will receive free special souvenirs.

Scarlet Yarns

Some of us have some great stories—funny, tragic, heroic, etc.—of our Wabash days, professors, fraternities, dorms, etc. At Scarlet Yarns, students will interview us as we tell these yarns to be recorded for posterity.

Some of the Events That Are Not-Class Specific

Friday: Golf, fitness center, campus tours, alumni lunch, colloquia, reunion reception, and Big Bash Banquet (seating by class at the dinner – look for our tables).

Saturday: Fun Run/Walk, fitness center, campus tours, colloquia, Chapel Sing (11 a.m.), picnic lunch, class photos (ours at 1:06 p.m.), tours of fraternity houses, and class banquets (Ours will be at 5:30 p.m.).

Sunday: Big Bash Awards Brunch at 11 a.m. (Seating by class.)

You can learn more about the specific topics of the colloquia, Scarlet Yarns, bookstore, archives, and other things on the Big Bash web site (www.wabash.edu/alumni/reunion/schedule).

With Our Classmates...

Look who have already registered. Twenty five (25) classmates have already registered for our reunion as of April 30, and sixteen (16) wives or ladies will be with us for the festivities.

Russell Dart is finishing his 39th year at North Daviess High School in Elnora, IN. He teaches physics, government, economics, and pre-calculus. He just finished his annual trip to Six Flags in St. Louis where his physics students study such things as gravity, velocities, and G-Forces with the rides. He has been the superintendent at Mountain Park Chautauqua in Remington for nearly 30 years. A former glee club member, he is the director of the barbershop quartet in Vincennes.

Sign Up For The Reunion Online.
May 25 is the last day.

News From Campus

Baseball Heads To NCAA Tourney. Wabash heads to the NCAA baseball tournament for the first time by winning its first conference championship, April 30. The team, a third seed, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 5-2 in the championship game and perennial national power, Wooster, 3-2 in the semi-finals. Wabash joined the North Coast Athletic Conference in 2000. The college dedicated a new baseball stadium this spring. Baseball is the oldest varsity sport at Wabash.

Wabash hires new basketball coach. Antoinette Carpenter '00 will become the new head basketball coach replacing his mentor and legend Mac Petty. Carpenter played along side perhaps the greatest Wabash shooter Josh Estelle. For the past four years, he was Coach Petty's assistant. He knows Wabash, he can coach, and he can recruit. He was an art major, so he ought to be able to draw up some nifty plays.

College Celebrates Earth Day. Students for Sustainability and the College's Environmental Concerns Committee celebrated Earth Day, on April 25, by expanding the one-year old Wabash Community Garden. They planted a new orchard and learned about upcoming plans for the garden.

Please Donate To The Annual Fund By June 30

Join the classmates listed below who have already said “thanks” for their Wabash liberal arts education and values by donating to the annual fund. The fiscal year will end on June 30. Please send a check to Wabash College, P.O. Box 352, Crawfordsville, IN 47933 or donate online at wabash.edu/alumni/egift before the end of the fiscal year.

It's A Privilege. A senior who is about to graduate reflected on his four fleeting years. He has had an amazing education at Wabash. He told me that it was “a privilege” to be a Wabash Man. Let's continue to refer students to Wabash. A referral is easy, important, and rewarding. We can refer a student—especially juniors, sophomores, and younger--by mailing information to the Dean of Admissions, P. O. Box 352, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, IN 47933 or referring online at wabash.edu/alumni/alumni/refer.

Thanks for reading Pactoracles. It is my honor to serve the Class of 1971. Please contact me with news, comments, questions, or clean jokes. See you at our reunion, June 3-5. Sign up at: www.wabash.edu/alumni/reunion/signup.

Kind Regards
