To the Men of the Class of 1974:

Greetings! I hope you are all doing well and looking ahead to a fabulous summer. The weather here in northern Indiana is warming quickly and drying almost as quickly. Hopefully we will not have a repeat of last summer's drought.

The Class of 2013 has recently walked off of the mall after its commencement exercises with each man beginning his "life after Wabash." Alumni, family and friends will soon be reinvigorating the campus during the Big Bash Reunion weekend May 31 – June 2, 2013.

Reunion and campus are the primary motivators behind this brief missive. The Class of 1974 will be celebrating its fortieth reunion as part of next year's Big Bash Reunion. Save the dates June 6 – 8, 2014 and make plans to join your classmates in Crawfordsville.

Reunion planning is a rewarding experience when you see a large number of your classmates return and reconnect at Big Bash. However, a successful reunion does not happen by accident. It takes time, talent, and treasure. The more hands helping lighten the load for everyone involved. Toward that end we are asking for your help. We are seeking to fill three positions as we begin to organize the Reunion Committee for the Class of 1974:

1. Reunion chairman. The reunion chairman leads the effort to engage classmates and helps to plan the class-specific events and programs.

2. Living unit representatives. These men personally contact their pledge brothers and fellow independent (GDIs) classmates to encourage attendance at our 40th reunion.
3. Gift chairman. The gift chairman coordinates with the college's advancement team to inspire our classmates to financially support Wabash.

If you are willing to fill one of these positions, please contact, me (Paul) or Mark at the numbers or addresses above, or Tom Runge in the Alumni and Parent Relations Office at the college (765-361-6371 or runget@wabash.edu).

Speaking of financial support of the college, please remember to make your 2013 gift to Wabash before the fiscal year ends on June 30, 2013. Go to <http://www.wabash.edu/alumni/annualgiving> to discover all of the convenient ways to have your name added to the Class of 74 Giving Honor Roll for 2013.

Also, please remember to let Mark or me know what is going on in your life as we ramp up our communications in anticipation of our 40th. We did hear earlier this year Bill O'Bryan had been named leader of the financial services litigation subgroup at Butler, Snow, O'Mara, Stevens & Canada's Nashville, TN law office. Bill is an AV-rated (preeminent) attorney by Martindale-Hubbell and has been recognized in Mid-South Super Lawyers for Business Litigation and The Best Lawyers in America for Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights. Belated congratulations to OB!
