Class of 1992:

I hope you all are doing well. Sorry that time has gotten away from me and that it's been so long since our last Class Letter. Things have been busy around Wabash as well.

Admissions

The Admissions Office once again fielded a remarkable number of applications – over 1550 – and has received deposits from around 270 students. They expect a class of 250 or so to matriculate in the fall.

Spring Sports

The track team had an exceptional showing this spring, sending six runners in four different events to the national championship meet

(http://www.wabash.edu/news/displaystory.cfm?news_ID=8106). Kevin McCarthy and

Emanuel Aouad earned All-American honors

(http://www.wabash.edu/news/displaystory.cfm?news_ID=8110).

Tennis coach Jason Hutchison earned NCAC coach-of-the-year honors while three players earned all-conference honors. Hutchison led Wabash to its best record in school history.

The baseball team finished a respectable 19-23 and 10-9 in conference, after starting the season 0-4. Unfortunately they only split the season series with the Dannies, but they did get to play in the new Cowboys Stadium during Spring Break. For pictures, see

Sports Facilities Update

Construction on new athletics facilities is in full swing this summer, including upgrades to the football, baseball, soccer and intramural fields. The natural grass in Hollett Little Giant Stadium has been removed in favor of FieldTurf. For more information, photos and interviews with Athletic Director Tom Bambrey and Head Football Coach Erik Raeburn, check out

Other Sports News

Big news came in last week – DePauw, after 12 years in the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference, will take the place of departing Earlham in the North Coast Athletic Conference.

The Monon Bell will now have conference championship implications – see

Members of Class of '92 Taking Over Indiana Politics

For those of us in Indiana, you probably have noticed some of our classmates enjoying some impressive political success. Todd Rokita has been Secretary of State since 2002, and presently is running for the 4th Congressional District seat held by Steve Buyer. And who's in the running to succeed Todd as Secretary of State? None other than classmate Charlie White. Good luck in November, Todd and Charlie!

Class Donors

Thanks to the following classmates who have donated to Wabash this academic year: Frank Amidon, Jeff Anderson, Saunak Basu, Andy Bauccho, Ted Berry, John Bloomer, Kenyatta Brame, Pablo Bukata, Jonathan Burke, Min Chen, Jay Church, Rob Clancy, Jr., Brent Embrey, Joe Emmick, Mike Gaby, Jim Herr, Thomas Holton, Peter Horvath, Chris Kelleher, Jim Kerr, Jeff Lampert, Mark Lapierre, Andy Lien, Jason Little, Mike Lohorn, Mike Lowes, Jeff Magginnis, Cameron Morgan, Bocephus Murphy, Marc Nichols, Bill Padgett, Rob Paugh, Bill Rakoczy, Tony Ridolfo, Jr., Rob Rudicel, Greg Simmons, Matt Sobolewski, Jason Sprunger, Mark Sutton, Keith Veal, Paul Wainman, Jr., Jeremy Walker, Bob Weiss, Kevin Wild and Dan Witte. Prior to the year's end, please consider making a gift to Wabash at <https://www.wabash.edu/alumni/egift> or by phone at (877) 743-4545. If you are an Indiana resident, a donation up to $400 results in a $200 state tax credit. Another great way to support the college is by obtaining a personalized Wabash license plate for a $25 donation. Visit <http://www.wabash.edu/alumni/plates> for more information, and I encourage you to view the "Ten Great Reasons" video put together by Jim Amidon and Joe Klen at <http://www.wabash.edu/10reasons/>.

I hope everyone is having a great year. Please update the College on your current life situation via alumni@wabash.edu so that we may include it in the next class note.

Very truly yours,
