Classmates,

I hope this letter finds you well and enjoying the spring weather after a long winter. A few notes about some upcoming items:

Big Bash 2015

Big Bash 2015 is less than two months away! If you've been waiting to sign up now is the time to do it. Our 20th reunion is set for June 5-7th. The deadline to sign up for the reunion is May 27, 2015. The College has planned a weekend full of events. Regardless of whether you can come for the entire weekend or just a couple of hours, sign up now! If you can come for one day, think Saturday. The Chapel Sing, class photo, and our class reception and dinner are all on Saturday. Also, it is not too late to help. If you are interested in helping assist with the Big Bash committee for the reunion, please let me know.

Spreading the fame of her honored name

Trott Law, a real estate finance law firm in Farmington Hills, Michigan announced that its Senior Vice President of Corporate Affairs, Roy Sexton, was selected to participate on a four person panel at this year's Legal Marketing Conference, held on April 13-15th. Roy was selected to offer practical advice on effectively communicating with lawyers, leveraging generational commonalities, delivering results that will build credibility and establishing a career network. Congratulations Roy!

On Campus

As a reminder, the College is in the process of updating its online files. You may have received a communication from the College asking you to update your contact information. Wabash's alumni database is an excellent resource for finding other alums. Please take a few minutes to update your biographical information so that Wabash has your most current data.

With the school and fiscal years coming to an end, now is a great time to make a contribution to Wabash. Please consider making a donation.

I look forward to catching up with many of you during Big Bash weekend!

Wabash Always Fights!
