Dear Class,

You are receiving your ballots to vote on members of the National Association of Wabash Men board of directors and for the alumni representative to the Wabash College Board of Trustees.

I write today to highlight the fact that our very own class agent Joe Trebley is a nominee for the Wabash College Board of Trustees. While I trust you've seen this already and proudly cast your vote, I would be remiss if I didn't follow up these ballots with a note. Having a strong voice from our generation, and our class specifically, is an opportunity not to be missed.

If you've already filled your ballot out, thanks for your support of Joe. Please connect with your classmates and peers from 2001 and encourage them to recover their ballot from the recycle bin and get in the game.

Thanks so much for your continued support of the College and, in advance, for your support of Joe. Oh, I suppose the Wabash College Advancement Office would appreciate this class letter request that you remember the College in your annual giving plans.

I have been sitting on my classmate updates for too long. More information to follow.

I'll do better next time,

Davey
