

WABASH COLLEGE

CLASS OF 2005 NEWSLETTER

A NOTE FROM YOUR CLASS AGENTS

January 2014

Wabash Men of 2005:

No matter where you call home, winter in all its glory has most likely arrived. Unless, of course, home to you is somewhere tropical. If this is the case, send us an update already so we can live vicariously through you!

Weather complaining aside, your class agents would like to extend warm wishes and a Happy New Year to each of you and your families!

During this time of year it is common to take stock in life's blessings and often spend time with those closest to us. As you worked through your shopping lists perhaps you noticed that 'Wabash College' is not on there! Perhaps we can encourage a last-minute donation to the Annual Fund. 4,200 other alumni and friends of the College annually support their relationship with Wabash, and 60% of them make their gift each year by December 31st for tax benefit purposes. If you continue to support your decision to attend and graduate from Wabash College you can go here now to make your Annual Gift contribution.

Now on to what's going on back on campus:

Scott Feller Named College Dean - President Gregory Hess announced that Scott Feller, award-winning Chemistry professor, will be the College's next Dean

Dean Mike Raters '85 Wins Award - Mike Raters is the 2013 winner of the McKaig Award for Exemplary Leadership in Addressing High Risk Drinking

Bell Stays At Wabash for 5th Straight Year
Ding, Ding, Ding, Ding, Ding

Cross-Country "Red Pack" = Regional Champs

Wherever you go, you can show your Wabash pride! Send Wabash your business card and they will affix your card to a luggage tag, attach a strap, and send it back ready to use. You can send your business card to the College at any time or include it with your next gift. Business cards can be mailed to:

Wabash College
Advancement Office-Luggage Tag
P.O. Box 352
Crawfordsville, IN 47933

They would prefer to have your business card; however, if you don't have a business card or want to use a different address, you can request to have Wabash create a customized luggage tag for you here.
