Ten Year Reunion Update

Our Ten Year Reunion is June 2-4, 2017!

Reunion registration opens in late January. Our goal is to see at least 56 classmates and their families (as able) return to campus, which will break the all-time record for a Wabash 10 Year reunion. If you haven't marked your calendar yet, please do so!!

Reunion Leaders

Thank you to these classmates for helping with the effort to encourage registration and participation in our reunion:

Charlie Hoogland

Chris McNicholas

John Meara

Reunion Gift Leaders

The ten year reunion is an important time to show our philanthropic commitment as the next generation of alumni leaders who will be entrusted with the stewardship of Old Wabash. To that end, we will be encouraging classmates to support the Wabash Annual Fund with a focus on aiding Immersion Learning and Study Abroad opportunities for current and future students. Classmates Zach Foughty and Andrew McKone, along with our honorary classmate Professor Kay Widdows, will be heading up our effort as we build our Reunion Gift.

We hope you enjoy some of the college and classmate updates in this note and look forward to seeing many of you next June!

Happy Holidays!

Ross and Josh

Martindale Hall saw its first major renovation since 1961. The interior space was completely redesigned and now features a grand living room, which opens up to the arboretum and includes a two-story fireplace, a private group study room, kitchen, den, and social spaces for events. The second level features more group study spaces and a media room, and there is a large group study space on the fourth floor with views of the arboretum, Center Hall, and Baxter Hall. Wabash Trustee Jay Williams, who was one of the first Wabash students to live in Martindale in the 1960's, spearheaded the project. Dedication of the "new" Martindale took place in October.

Wabash Wrestling is off to another great season, most recently winning the North Central College Wrestling Tournament (pictured above) with four individual champions and 13 top-six finishes. National rankings for Division III wrestling have Wabash at #2, behind only Wartburg College. This is the first full season with the new campus wrestling facility, the Shelbourne Wrestling Center, in operation.

Morgan Nolan '07 was named an Alumni Admissions Fellow by the National Association of Wabash Men at Homecoming. Nolan, now an assistant principal at Munster High School, has built a track record of success over the years in recruiting students to Wabash.

Several classmates and Beta brothers were on hand for the wedding of Ross Dillard '07 and Molly Brown in September. Pictured here from L-R: T.J. Schaffer, Harrison Harbin, Ryan Pritchard, Adrian Starnes, Jake Turner, Dan Fox, Dillard, Ben Froedge, Daniel Petrie, Ben Tritle, Josh Owens, and Seth Nunan.
