September 2008

Dear Classmates,

The fall season is already upon us and Wabash has been busy with the dedication of newly built and renovated fraternity houses and the release of designs for new athletic complexes. Before we get to that, though, we have a couple of updates to share.

Class Updates

Scott Hamilton responded to our inaugural annual newsletter '07 Rulez.

“Just wanted to update you all in my life. I am in the same place as Van Kirk. I am engaged (Jessica and I will be married Sept. 13th). I have a house on the north east side of Indianapolis (lived there about 7 months). I am still working at ACES Power Marketing and have just finished up my first year. I am also doing a lot of coaching. I am an assistant baseball coach at Bishop Chatard H.S. (my alma mater), and I am the head coach of a summer league team.”

Kyle Long has moved and changed jobs.

“Hope all is well. Just thought I'd update you on some new things in my life. After spending a year as Research Associate at the Center of Inquiry I've moved out east, where I've taken another research position at the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB) in Washington, DC. I'll also be a full-time graduate student at St. John's College in Annapolis, MD, which is where I'll be living, too. I can still be found in Crawfordsville on occasion as I've been named a Teagle Assessment Scholar, a consulting position which will allow me to continue my affiliation with the Center of Inquiry. I can be contacted at 812.219.0491 or longkylea@gmail.com.”

Class Award

In our last letter, we issued a call challenging the class to excel in alumni giving participation for 2007-2008. Thanks to each of the 69 classmates who were able to respond and make us the first class in Wabash history to top its own Senior Gift Campaign! Our accomplishment earned us the R. Robert Mitchum Award, given annually at the Class Agent Forum to the best young alumni class. It appears we have lived up to our newsletter's hype because '07 Rulez!

Read more about the award and what we've been up to at Wabash this month at our class blog: <http://www2.wabash.edu/blog/class2007/> .

Everything is New!

Things on campus appear to be changing fast even in the short time since we left! Over the weekend, the college had dedication ceremonies for the brand new Tau Kappa Epsilon house and the renovated Delta Tau Delta house. Here are a couple of photos.

So on top of all this, plans are underway for new athletic facilities. New turf for the football field and a complete reconfiguration of the soccer and baseball fields are in the works. Lambda Chi's view will soon change from baseball to soccer! Here are some artist renderings.

Yep, that's the Lambda Chi house at the bottom right looking out on the new soccer field and new practice fields beyond in Mud Hollow.

Finally, here is a picture of the planned house for Kappa Sigma, the last major fraternity to be redone.

Upcoming Events

Thinking about coming back to the college this fall? Homecoming festivities will take place on Saturday, October 4, and the Monon Bell game will be at Wabash this year on Saturday, November 15. Remember to reserve your tickets early for Bell!

We look forward to seeing you back in the fall if you come. If you can't make it back, drop us a line and let us know what you're up to. Remember you can contact us anytime at the class e-mail: wabash07@gmail.com .

In Wabash,

Ross and Josh
