

CLASS OF 2011 – NEWSLETTER FOR SEPTEMBER 2013

Dear Class of 2011,

I hope this letter finds you all doing well in your personal and professional lives. A new class of Wabash men was rung in on Saturday, August 24! We write today to give you some recent news and updates concerning Wabash College and members of our class. Please email us (jagerman@indiana.edu or stipesc@gmail.com) with updates or recent highlights in your lives. I hope to see you all very soon back on campus!

WAF,

Jake German & Cody Stipes

---

RECENT NEWS FROM CAMPUS

Wabash College's 16th President Gregory Hess rings in the Class of 2017! Click here to read more about the ringing in ceremony.

Wabash fraternities Theta Delta Chi, Lambda Chi Alpha and Tau Kappa Epsilon earned national honors this summer. You can read more about their honors by clicking here.

Wabash men push Annual Fund to new record. This year, Wabash men's generosity and gratitude brought the 2012-2013 Annual Fund to $3,326,272, the highest in the College's history. You can read more about this story here.

Wabash scores big in 2013 Princeton Review and ranks near the top in the nation for career services, science labs, athletics, classroom experience and more. You can read more about how Wabash fared in the Princeton Review by clicking here.

Wabash President Patrick White, who announced he was stepping down as the College's 15th president last May, has begun serving as the Interim President of Millikin University. Earlier this year at a tribute for President White, Jon Pactor '71, said "Wabash alumni know that the Wabash education is not just the transfer of data but is the application of education to create better men and a better world. By your words, by your conduct, and by your character, you are a Wabash Man through and through. As our president, you have thought critically, acted responsibly, and led effectively, and now so many men and women are living more humanely because of you. Your Wabash life is our Wabash inspiration."

The following link is a video tribute to Some Little Giant.

---

CLASSMATE UPDATES

Jake Moore, serving in the Peace Corp. in Cameroon—"I grew a love for travel with my high school Spanish Club, when I journeyed to Costa Rica for my first out of country experience. Seeing a different culture, different traditions, and customs I knew this would not be my last time out of the country.

CLASS OF 2011 – NEWSLETTER FOR SEPTEMBER 2013

Attending Wabash I again was blessed with the opportunity to travel. First an immersion trip to Ecuador. Followed by a summer study in Valencia, Spain.” If you want to read more about Jake’s experience, you can check out his blog World Through Jakes Eyes.

Ryan Bowerman is the new assistant volleyball coach at Indiana University-Kokomo. He will also earn his Master’s Degree in Arts and Liberal Studies with an emphasis in Global Studies. You can read more about Ryan’s story by clicking here.

Josh Miracle is a teacher and coach at Westfield High School in the Social Studies department. He is currently coaching under former Wabash College assistant football coach, Jake Gilbert.

Charlie Kelly was the Co-Founder of an Indianapolis-based events app, called "Squarejive." However, back in December of 2012 he started to receive cease and desist letters from a Silicon Valley-based law firm. Just this August his company's trademark was opposed in Federal Court by the mobile payment-processing giant, Square Inc. After spending thousands of dollars on legal fees trying to protect his app, he elected to start FindJive - a new company dedicated to building custom web and mobile applications. If you find yourself filing a trademark, he encourages you to reach out to him to hear his lessons learned from the process.

Andrew Gillman and Aprill Malena Schelle were married on June 9, 2012 at Park Chapel Christian Church in Greenfield. Andrew is currently a student at Indiana University School of Optometry.

Michael Nossett and Grace Paschall were married on June 29th, 2013 at the Pioneer Chapel at Wabash College. Many Wabash men were in the wedding party including the best man, Andrew Forrester.

Michael Myers and Maggie Blaich were married on August 4th, 2012. Mike currently teaches U.S. History at Northridge Middle School. He is also the head varsity cross country coach and assistant varsity track coach at North Montgomery High School. His younger brother, Pat Myers, started Wabash this year as a freshman.

Adam Phipps entered the sacrament of marriage with his long-time friend Julia back in January of 2013.

Alex Moseman has returned to Wabash as an Admissions Counselor after two years of teaching in Indianapolis with Teach For America. He will be responsible recruiting the Indianapolis area and most of southern Indiana.

---

KEY DATES

HOMECOMING: September 21, 2013

WABASH DAY: October 5-6, 2013

PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION OF GREG HESS: October 11, 2013

120TH MONON BELL GAME: November 16, 2013

