

Kappa Sigma Fraternity

Alpha-Pi Chapter

Future Wabash Student,

That is we hope you are deciding to begin the journey to becoming a Wabash Man. We would like to welcome you this campus that we have fallen in love with. As you begin to embark on this journey we are confident your mind is full of many questions such as: What classes will be available to me? What am I going to major in? What should I bring? What will I need? Where should I live?

It is our hope to help you be able to answer all of these questions, as we have already had to answer them for ourselves. Specifically we would like to help you answer the last question on that list. While you will undoubtedly have a wonderful time at Wabash regardless of where you live, we are obviously biased towards fraternity life and specifically that of Kappa Sigma. We are confident that regardless of how you would label yourself and regardless of what it is you are interested in you will find a home at Kappa Sigma.

The brothers of Kappa Sigma at Wabash College, Alpha-Pi Chapter, have been at Wabash since 1895 and are proud of our Chapter and our Brotherhood. Coming to Wabash and the decision to rush Kappa Sigma was one of the most formative decisions of every one of our lives. We found something great at the Kappa Sigma house, and we believe you will too.

Kappa Sigma is a lifelong brotherhood focused on scholarship, leadership, fellowship, and service. We promote these values in our everyday living in and out of the Chapter house, in our relationships with each other and with those around us. Kappa Sigmas have served recently as Vice-President of the Student Body, Student Senate Treasurer, editors of publications, have directed plays at the theater, participate in athletics, and can be found in almost every aspect of the campus. Over half of our junior class has spent or is spending the semester studying abroad all across the world.

We understand that every student is searching for something different out of life and their living situation. However, we assure you that you will find what you are looking for at Kappa Sigma. If it is strong academics, a place to be social, a place to make life long friends, a place to play sports, or simply eat a good meal; Kappa Sigma is the place for you.

However, we could write all day about why you should come or how great we are, but it would mean nothing if you did not experience it for yourself. This is why we are encouraging you to simply stop by the house when you get to campus and come meet the brothers. Let us know what it is you are interested in both academically and socially. We would love to introduce you to someone in the house with like interest and goals. In addition, the rush chair is available at about any time day or night if you would like to give him a call and ask him for anything. We look forward to seeing you on campus soon and hope that you will find a home at Kappa Sigma as you consider the decision of coming to Wabash College. We look forward to seeing you on campus soon.

In Wabash,
The Brothers of Kappa Sigma

Rush Chair: Rob Bloss (317) 270-3411
President: Royce Gregerson (260) 602-2458