

Wabash College Scholarships

Every Wabash student and admitted applicant is automatically considered for all the scholarships for which he is eligible. Except for the Lilly Awards, Fine Arts Scholarships, and the Honor Scholarships described below, no application is required. Scholarship winners are expected to write thank you letters to the scholarship donors.

Wabash College Lilly Awards: The Wabash College Lilly Awards, named to honor the Lilly family of Indiana, were established by the Wabash College Board of Trustees in 1974. Each year this program recognizes outstanding young men who show high potential and future promise—men who are likely to have an impact not only on Wabash, but on their community and thus on our world. The Lilly Award, the College's most prestigious scholarship, is renewable annually and covers the recipient's tuition, fees, room and board.

Wabash College Honor Scholarships: Wabash annually offers Honor Scholarships without regard to financial need. The scholarships are based on written examinations taken on the campus. Included in these Honor Scholarships are those endowed by the generous bequest to the College of Frederic M. Hadley, Sr., the McLain-McTurnan-Arnold Honor Scholarship endowed by the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Reid McLain and Mr. Kent Arnold, the Buren Fund Honor Scholarship administered by the National City Bank of Lebanon, Indiana, the George S. Olive III and E.W. Olive Honor Scholarship endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Olive, the McVie Honor Scholarships endowed by Mr. and Mrs. A. Malcolm McVie, the Louis J. Nardine Award established by Mrs. Gretchen N. Doris in memory of her father, Class of 1906, and the A. Malcolm '41 and Robert L. '37 McVie Honor Scholarship endowed by the estate of A. Malcolm McVie, Mrs. A. Malcolm McVie and friends of A. Malcolm McVie.

Wabash College Fine Arts Scholarships: The Fine Arts Scholarship Program at Wabash was established in 1987 to encourage the development of the fine arts within a rigorous liberal arts context. Based upon competition during Fine Arts on campus program, the Scholarships are offered each year to students with demonstrated outstanding ability in one or more of the following: visual arts, creative writing, music, and theater.

Wabash College Top Ten/Top Twenty Scholarships: Admitted students who rank in the top twenty percent of their graduating class will automatically be awarded the highest level of scholarship for which they qualify based on their class rank and their fulfillment of the individual campus visit requirements of each level. Admitted students from high schools which do not normally provide a class rank can meet the class rank requirement by having their high school certify that they are in one of the class percentiles required for eligibility.

Wabash College President's Scholarships: The President's Scholarships are awarded for outstanding achievement in high school. While admitted students do not need to have demonstrated financial need to be eligible for a President's Scholarship, the value of the President's Scholarship is determined in part based on need. Consequently, every admitted applicant who files the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and/or other required financial aid forms is automatically considered for a President's Scholarship. President's Scholarships are supported by gifts from the Arthur Vining Davis Foundation. Wabash is a college sponsor of National Merit Scholarships.

Wabash College Boys State Scholarship: Admitted students that are selected to attend participate in their state's Boys State Program and who meet the campus visit requirement will receive a Boys State scholarship to attend Wabash.

Wabash College merit-based scholarships are renewable annually provided the student attains the cumulative grade point average and number of course credits required at the end of each academic year in order to make normal progress toward graduating in four years.

Restricted Scholarships

These scholarships are awarded automatically by the College to students with demonstrated financial need. Applications are not required.

William D. Backman, Sr. Scholarship: This scholarship was established by William D. Backman, Jr., Class of 1953, in memory of his father, a former trustee of the College and a member of the Class of 1924. The income is designated for financial aid to a student residing in Indiana.

Bank One Scholarship: This scholarship was established by Bank One, Indianapolis, N.A., and is given to a deserving high school graduate from the State of Indiana who is also a resident of Indiana.

Merle L. Bartoo Scholarship: This scholarship was established to help a non-fraternity student with financial need who is a rhetoric and/or English major.

Thomas R. Bauman Scholarship: Established in memory of Thomas R. Bauman, Class of 1985, by his family and friends, the income of this fund is used for a scholarship for an incoming freshman with preference first to a graduate of Zionsville Community High School, then any Boone County high school, then any student from Central Indiana, who best exemplifies Thomas R. Bauman's extra-curricular high school activities and rank.

Theodore Bedrick Scholarship Fund: This scholarship was established in memory of Dr. Bedrick H'52 by his family, friends, students, and colleagues as a fitting memorial to a devoted teacher and colleague. The scholarship is awarded to juniors majoring in a field in the humanities who expect to enter teaching at the secondary or college level.

Gordon G. and Julia Gregg Beemer Memorial Scholarship: Established by their sons, Michael Gregg Beemer and Charles Gordon Beemer, and by their grandchildren, Leslie Beemer Wegner, Kathleen Beemer Filardi, Robert Michael Beemer, Jeffrey Marshall Beemer, and Jennifer Lynn Beemer, this scholarship honors Gordon G. Beemer H'96 and Julia Gregg Beemer. As the only presently living descendants of Caleb Mills, first principal and only teacher at the founding of Wabash College and founder of the Indiana Public School System, they wish to honor him and his deceased descendants and other ancestors of the donors who had a close relationship with Wabash College. A candidate should be, or be capable of becoming, a young man of vision, integrity, and leadership as exemplified by Caleb Mills and the Founding Fathers of Wabash, and continued by the fiercely loyal members of the National Association of Wabash Men. Special consideration is given to any student in the Teacher Education Program and to any student interested in archival or biographical research.

Helen Oppy Binns Scholarship Fund: Established by Helen Oppy Binns in memory of her parents, Thomas Franklin Oppy and Anna Gertrude Oppy, this fund assists deserving students with financial need, preference to be given to students from Coal Creek Township, Montgomery County, Indiana, and then to students from elsewhere in Indiana.

Birdzell '61 and Susie Birdzell Cumming, this scholarship provides need-based aid for qualified students who demonstrate interest in a career in medicine or health care, and demonstrate a well-rounded high school experience. First preference is given to students from Crown Point High School, then to Lake County, Indiana, northwest Indiana, or from the rest of Indiana in that order.

David E. Bishop Scholarship Trust: This fund was endowed by David E. Bishop, Class of 1952.

Black-Vrooman Scholarship: Established by Mrs. M. Lewis Marsh, Jr., in memory of her grandfather (John Charles Black, Class of 1862), her great uncle, (William Perkins Black, Class of 1864), and her cousin (John Black Vrooman, Class of 1921), the income from this fund is used for deserving students.

Brian Bosler Overseas Memorial Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by the alumni, the parents of members, and the members of Phi Delta Theta in memory of Brian Bosler, Class of 1987. The scholarship, with a $1,000 stipend for appropriate expenses, is awarded to a student, preference given to a member of Phi Delta Theta, planning on studying abroad in his junior year. Selection is based on overall accumulative grade point average with some consideration of campus involvement and personal character.

Ralph M. and Harry M. Bounnell Scholarships in Law and/or Medicine: This fund was established by Mrs. Jewell I. Bounnell in memory of her husband, Ralph M. Bounnell, Class of 1930, who practiced law in Crawfordsville from 1933 until his death in 1980, and of his father, Harry M. Bounnell, M.D., who practiced medicine in Waynetown and vicinity for more than 50 years. Awarded to members of the junior and senior classes who plan to study law or medicine, these scholarships may be continued for limited periods of graduate study in those fields. Awards are made on the basis of moral character, financial need, and other factors giving evidence of probable success in the respective professions. Preference is given to residents of Montgomery County, Indiana.

Austin H. Brown Scholarship Fund: This scholarship is administered outside the traditional financial aid program. It is used to meet special needs and provide a special recognition for Wabash students.

William Penn Bullock Scholarship: Established in honor of William Penn Bullock, Class of 1940, by his daughter Joanne B. O'Neal and friend, this scholarship is awarded to a junior or senior in the Economics Department with a high grade point average.

Burgess Family Scholarship: This scholarship supports a student who is enrolled in the College's Education Studies Program. It is awarded for the student's junior and senior years as long as he remains enrolled in the Education Studies Program. The scholarship was created to support young men who plan to put their education to work in the critical field of educating others.

Albert M. and Virginia B. Campbell Memorial Scholarship Fund: This fund provides awards to needy juniors and seniors majoring in economics who want to increase their understanding of the market economy, or to such students majoring in political science who want to increase their understanding of a limited, decentralized federal form of government.

Alex S. Carroll and Robert J. Beck Honorary Scholarship: This scholarship is awarded to an incoming freshman who is ranked in the top ten of his high school graduating class, demonstrates integrity and high ethical standards, has a record of community service, and demonstrates the character and qualities normally associated with Eagle Scouts and 4-H or similar leadership organizations. The scholarship is renewable each year, provided the student maintains a minimum 3.0 GPA and continues to hold the qualities previously listed. Mr. Carroll and Mr. Beck upheld a lifelong dedication to teaching and encouraging honor, character, scholarship, and hard work.

Greater Chicago Area Alumni Award of Merit Scholarship: Established in 1994 by the Chicago Area Alumni Association, this scholarship is given to outstanding high school students from the Chicago area. Candidates are judged on the following criteria: citizenship, academic record, and contributions in the high school and the community.

Paul U. and Elizabeth K. Deer Scholarship: Established in memory of Paul U. and Elizabeth K. Deer, this scholarship provides support for qualifying students who intend to pursue careers in business.

Mary Louise Denney Woodwind Scholarship: Mary Louise Denney, wife of Professor Paul T. Mielke, participated in College musical organizations between 1957 and 1985, as principal flute in the concert band and chamber orchestra and as a member of a baroque quartet. This scholarship is established in recognition of her service to the College. It is awarded each year to a flutist who is active in Wabash musical organizations, with maintenance for four years depending upon continued music participation and progress toward a degree in course. If there is enrolled flutist, preference will be given in order to performers on oboe, bassoon, clarinet, or French horn. Selection of the Denney Scholar is vested in the Dean's Office, with consultation of the Music Department.

Victor A. DeRose “Legacy of Philanthropy” Scholarship: Established in 1990, this scholarship provides assistance to sophomore, junior, or senior students of good character. The goal of the fund is to assist as many qualified students as possible by selecting students who are of good character and stand in the top third of the class. Importance is placed on students who are interested in pursuing an M.B.A, majoring in economics or science, fluent in foreign language, and who have demonstrated leadership.

Lee Detchon-Beta Theta Pi Scholarship Fund: Established by the will of Lee Detchon, Class of 1923, income from this fund is to be given each year to a member of Tau Chapter of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

Paul Logan DeVerter, Sr. Memorial Scholarship Fund for Chemistry: Established by Ruth Hendricks DeVerter in memory of her husband Paul, Class of 1915, the income from the fund is awarded to an outstanding native Indiana upperclassman who is likely to pursue a career in chemistry or chemical engineering upon graduation.

Lucinda Diddie Memorial Scholarship: This scholarship was established in 1987 by Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Diddie to honor and memorialize Dr. Diddie’s mother. Lucinda Diddie was a very enthusiastic supporter of Wabash, and the scholarship is awarded to a graduate from the Crown Point area high schools. The selection will be made on the basis of scholarship, character and participation in high school activities.

Donald M. DuShane Memorial Scholarship: This fund provides scholarship support with preference for a student in political science.

Luther E. Ellis Memorial Scholarship: Established by his widow, this scholarship is awarded annually to a senior with financial need who demonstrates the high intelligence, citizenship, and integrity characteristic of Mr. Ellis, Class of 1914.

Isaac C. Elston, Jr., Scholarship Fund: Established by Mrs. Florence Elston-Beemer, this fund provides a scholarship each spring to an outstanding and worthy junior entering his senior year the next fall. Mr. Elston was a member of the Class of 1894.

Foster-Ames Scholarship: This scholarship is maintained by funds given in 1946 and 1982 by families, friends, and members of the wire-bound box industry in memory of E. E. Ames, Class of 1903, and Thomas I. Foster, Class of 1914. The student qualifying for this scholarship must be able to do satisfactory college work, but academic excellence is less important than character, qualities of leadership, and need for financial assistance. Preference is given to sons and grandsons of employees’ families of the wire-bound box industry. If no such candidate from the industry qualifies, Wabash College may grant this scholarship to any student meeting the qualifications with demonstrated need.

Barbara and Galan W. “Dutch” Freise ’48 Scholarship: This scholarship provides need-based financial assistance to Wabash students from the rural areas of Illinois. Need should take precedence over academic credentials when awarding this scholarship.

Albert M. Gavit Scholarship: Established by his widow, Mrs. Ann Gavit, the scholarship is awarded to a Wabash student entering the sophomore year whose freshman record shows the greatest potential for original and creative work in the humanities. Mr. Gavit was a member of the Class of 1947.

Garner-Gustafson Scholarship in Chemistry: This scholarship is awarded based on merit and financial need, supporting students majoring in chemistry or biochemistry. Students must maintain a 3.6 GPA in their major and be ranked in the top 10% of their class, and dedicate at least two years in a volunteer activity. Dr. James Bert Garner, Class of 1893, earned multiple advanced academic degrees in chemistry from various institutions, including Wabash. In addition to educator and director of research careers, he was a distinguished inventor who held over 25 patents.

Joe and Mary Genung Scholarship: This scholarship supports all or part of the tuition for students who have financial need and are from the Roachdale, Indiana, area and/or are concentrators in Religion.

Gilbert Memorial Scholarship: This scholarship was established in 1943 in memory of Major George A. Gilbert, Class of 1939, who was killed in an accident May 23, 1943, while serving with the Army Air Force. Following the death in 1958 of Major Gilbert's brother, Oscar M. Gilbert, Jr., Class of 1938, the Gilbert family asked that the scholarship memorialize both men.

Givens Endowed Scholarship: Established by Mr. and Mrs. David W. Givens '56, this scholarship may be awarded annually. The Scholarship(s) is applicable to the cost of tuition, housing, transportation, and books for a semester of study in Europe. A student with a declared major, minor, or area of concentration under the Department of Art, Division II will not be eligible as a candidate for the Scholarship. The Scholar(s) are to enroll in a program, approved by the Off-campus Study Committee, at a European Institution. Courses taken by the Scholar(s) must include one or more in the history of Western Art. The Scholarship(s) will be awarded without regard to need.

P. G. Goodrich Memorial Fund: This fund was endowed by Mr. Goodrich's sister, Elizabeth G. Terry. Mr. Goodrich was a member of the Class of 1930.

John B. Goodrich Charitable Trust: The income from the Trust is used to maintain two separate financial aid and scholarship programs, which taken together provide support for the kinds of students Mr. John B. Goodrich (Class of 1919) wished to help.

John B. Goodrich Grants in Aid: These need-based grants provide financial aid to students who show promise of contributing, in one or several of a wide variety of ways, to the life of Wabash College.

John B. Goodrich Scholarships: These scholarships are awarded without regard to need and on the basis of capacity for both leadership and academic achievement. The stipend for a Goodrich Scholarship is $3,500 per year.

Lucy Moore Grave Bequest: Wabash College, Earlham College and DePauw University share the income from a bequest made by Lucy Moore Grave, the wife of Dr. Benjamin Grave, who was a faculty member at Wabash College from 1920 to 1928. The funds are available as scholarships for study at a marine biological laboratory with priority being given to the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Massachusetts.

Haenisch-Howell-Hart Scholarship Fund: Established by Robert R. Hart '57 in memory of chemistry professors Dr. Edward L. Haenisch H'71 and Dr. Lloyd B. Howell, Class of 1909, the fund supports need-based scholarships and activities for students studying chemistry.

Hays Scholarship Fund: Established in 1946 by Will H. Hays, Wabash 1900, the income is used for qualifying students. Should the income of the fund exceed the amount needed to support all qualifying students, the excess will be awarded to upperclassmen interested in a career in public service.

Thomas A. and Martha L. Hays Scholarship: This is a scholarship for students from Wabash County, Indiana and/or metropolitan St. Louis, Missouri. The scholarship may be awarded to any student if there are no eligible recipients from Wabash County, Indiana or metropolitan St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. Hays is a member of the Class of 1955.

Charles Maurice Hegarty Fund: Established by Dr. W. Harvey Hegarty, in memory of his father, Class of 1931, this fund is used for the financial needs of a worthy student, with preference given to men from Vermillion County, Indiana.

Thomas Corwin Hood Memorial Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by the will of Thomas S. Hood in memory of his father, Thomas Corwin Hood, Wabash Class of 1881. In granting scholarships created by the Hood Scholarship Fund, preference is given to applicants who are sophomores, juniors, or seniors and who have indicated their intention to attend medical school following their graduation.

Carl P. Horneman '61 Endowed Scholarship: This is a need-based scholarship, as recommended by the Office of Financial Aid, for students who have met the admissions requirements of Wabash College and are judged by the appropriate committees to be representative of students that will support the mission, programs, and activities of Wabash College during their undergraduate years and afterwards. The scholarship may be awarded initially to a freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior recipient. If the recipient has met the criteria of the scholarship as judged by the appropriate person or committee, the award may be repeated for the next year until his graduation from Wabash College.

James H. Howard Memorial Scholarship: Established by Mr. and Mrs. Vesper Howard in memory of their son James, Class of 1986, the scholarship is awarded on the basis of need to the member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity who best personifies the personal characteristics of James Howard.

Lawrence F. and Ruth Hunter Memorial Scholarship Fund: Established by the wills of Lawrence F. Hunter, Class of 1929, and Ruth Hunter, the scholarships are to be awarded to needy members of the junior and senior classes majoring in economics who want to increase their understanding of the market economy and its great benefits; and to juniors and seniors majoring in political science who want to increase their understanding of the salutary effect of a limited, decentralized, federal form of government on freedom.

Journal-Review Scholarship: Established by the Crawfordsville Journal-Review, the scholarship is for one or two Wabash men with a keen interest in the newspaper field. This might include students with an interest in investigative reporting, photography, public affairs writing, scientific journalism, or any other field directly related to newspaper journalism.

Robert G. Knight, Jr. Memorial Scholarship: This scholarship was established by the Knight Family in honor of their husband and father, a 1955 graduate of the College and proud member of Phi Kappa Psi. The scholarship fund is intended to provide tuition support for deserving Wabash students who are of good character, who are excellent students, and who are active in the College and/or local community. Preference is given to prospective students who are of good character, are ranked in the top ten percent of their high school graduating class, and have made a demonstrable impact on their local community; and for returning students who have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.75 or higher, and have made a demonstrable impact on the local community (ideally on campus or in Crawfordsville; however, the College may give some consideration to extraordinary involvement in a student's hometown).

George M. Lee Scholarship: Established by his widow, Elizabeth C. Lee, this fund provides scholarship assistance to worthy students from Madison County, Indiana.

Mastin Foundation Scholarship Program: This program provides scholarships to students who are finalists or semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program who major at Wabash in the natural sciences such as chemistry, biology, math, or physics.

Mary McCallister Scholarship: Established by the will of Mary McCallister, the income of this fund shall be used to provide scholarships for students who without the assistance of the scholarship would be unable to attend Wabash College.

Sarah F. McCanliss Scholarship Fund: This scholarship honors a pioneer resident of Parke County, Indiana, Sarah F. McCanliss, mother of Lee McCanliss, Class of 1907. Preference is given to Parke County high school graduates.

Paul Caylor McKinney '52 Memorial Scholarship: This is a two-year scholarship awarded to a junior with demonstrated need, whose major and minor fields of study are in different academic divisions and whose GPA is consistently 3.0 or higher. Dr. McKinney taught chemistry at Wabash for 45 years until his retirement in 2001, and was Dean of the College from 1981-1993. His undergraduate years at Wabash broadened his intellectual horizon and led to friendships that accompanied him throughout his life.

Lee '62 and Rose McNeely Scholarship Fund: This fund provides need-based financial assistance to Wabash students from the state of Indiana.

Mefford Scholarship for Political Science: This scholarship established by a bequest from Gordon Mefford, Class of 1938.

Jack Meng Endowed Scholarship: A gift of John C. "Jack" Meng, Class of 1966, loyal Son of Wabash, this need-based, four-year scholarship assists qualifying and deserving young men so that they might have the educational opportunities afforded to them by Wabash College. Preference is given first to students from Midwest states, then elsewhere.

Paul Mielke Scholarship Fund: This scholarship is awarded to a student with financial need with an interest in mathematics, who has demonstrated progress in mathematics courses in high school. The scholarship honors Dr. Paul T. Mielke, Class of 1942, professor of mathematics (1946-1985), and founder of the computing laboratory, teaching the first courses in computer programming at Wabash.

R. Robert Mitchum Memorial Fund: The fund provides a scholarship on the basis of financial need for a "B" student who is active in the extracurricular life of the College. R. Robert Mitchum H'59 founded the music department, served as Director of the Glee Club and band 1949-69, head golf coach, and Director of Alumni Affairs 1974-1982.

LaVerne Noyes Scholarship Foundation: This foundation provides scholarships for direct descendants of American veterans of World War I.

The Todd M. Peters '87 Fund for Athletic Team Managers/Trainers: This scholarship is awarded to a student athletic team manager or trainer who is a sophomore, junior, or senior with at least one season of experience as manager or trainer of a varsity sport, with first preference to the basketball program and then other sports. Consideration will be given to a student who served as athletic manager or trainer during the preceding academic year, and he is not required to be a manager/trainer during the year he receives the scholarship. Student-athletes are not eligible to receive this award. Students must be on track to meet all minimum requirements towards graduation as outlined in the Wabash College academic bulletin. This scholarship may be awarded with or without regard to financial need to any student who fits the above criteria. It may be awarded for more than one year to the same student.

Plumley Family of Tennessee Scholarship Fund: This fund was established to award an annual scholarship to a student from Tennessee.

Byron and Priscilla Alden Price Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by Byron Price, Class of 1912, to endow scholarships.

Marion & Victor Powell-Nate Quinn Scholarship: Established by Professor Victor and Mrs. Marion Powell, this award honors Nate Quinn, an exceptional Wabash College art student. Nate overcome tremendous odds and tragic circumstances and deeply impressed them with his talent and hard work before he moved on to New York to pursue graduate studies and work on the sets of Broadway shows.

John Charles Rafferty Scholarship Fund: Established by Joan Rafferty Harrington and Edwin Harrington, this fund is named in honor of John Rafferty, Class of 1954, and is given to an upperclassman with financial need and in the upper half of his class. Preference is given to students from Fountain and Montgomery counties in Indiana, and then to other students from elsewhere in Indiana.

Dr. James Harvey Ransom Scholarship Fund: Income from this fund is used for worthy and needy students majoring in chemistry. Dr. Ransom was a member of the Class of 1890.

Alice L. and Benjamin A. Rogge Scholarship Fund: Established in 1999 to honor longtime Wabash professor of economics and Dean of the College Ben Rogge H'53 and his wife, Alice, the Rogge Scholarship Fund has as its guiding principle significant financial support for young men who have demonstrated leadership skills, academic achievement, and concern for others. Further, preference will be given to those young men who have met the guiding principles but might not be able to attend Wabash without financial assistance. The scholarship will be a minimum of full tuition, and may not be used for off-campus study if awarded to an international student.

Norman P. Rowe Endowed Scholarship: Established from the estate of Norman P. Rowe '60, the scholarship is awarded to incoming freshmen who have demonstrated financial need and who rank in the top 25 percent on the SAT or other test used nationally for the purpose of determining suitability for college and university admission. The intent of this scholarship is to allow qualified students to attend the College who would otherwise lack the financial resources to do so.

Lewis S. Salter Pep Band Scholarship: Established by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Davlin V, Class of 1985, the scholarship is awarded to a student who is an active member of the College Pep Band. Dr. Salter H'57 was a physics professor, President of the College from 1978 to 1988, and an active member of the Pep Band.

Dr. Joseph A. Stepka Class of 1934 Scholarship: This scholarship will be awarded with first consideration to a biology major who is a resident of New York state, and then to other students.

David Russell Stone Scholarship Fund: The fund was established by Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stone in honor of their son, David, Class of 1991.

Tannenbaum Scholarship: The Tannenbaum Scholarship covers an amount equal to full tuition cost for four years, provided that the student maintains a good college record. Selection is made on the basis of promise as a scholar and as a person, and on the basis of financial need. The scholarship was established by Mr. Ferdinand Tannenbaum, Class of 1912, of New York City, and is now supported by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ratliff of Indianapolis.

John Steele Thomson Scholarship: This fund was established by Richard H. Maxwell '50 and other descendants of Rev. Thomson, one of the founders and original trustees of Wabash College and professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy. The scholarship provides need-based support to recipients who must maintain a 3.0 or B-average and be of good character. The scholarship may be awarded initially to a freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior and may be awarded until graduation if he has met the criteria of the scholarship.

Dr. Thomas E. Topper '70 Scholarship Fund: Established through a gift from his estate, the fund provides need-based scholarships to qualified young men from F. J. Reitz High School and/or Mater Dei High School in Evansville, Indiana. If no F.J. Reitz High School or Mater Dei students qualify or choose to attend Wabash, the College may award the scholarship to qualified students from any Evansville high school. If no Evansville students qualify or choose to attend Wabash, the College may award the scholarship to qualified students from Southwest Indiana, Southeast Illinois, or North central Kentucky. The Topper Scholarship will provide up to three partial scholarships per year. Each recipient will maintain the Topper Scholarship for his freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior years provided he continues to demonstrate financial need and good academic standing. The Topper Scholarship will provide additional partial scholarships as the fund income allows.

Trippet Family Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by C. Kightly Trippet '36 honoring former President Byron K. Trippet '30, C. Kightly Trippet and their parents, Sanford and Edith K. Trippet, who during the 20th century have sought to set an example that encourages young people to pursue higher education. Preference is given to men who are majoring in some form of communications.

Peter Valentine Scholarship: Established by Merrilee D. Valentine in honor of her son, Peter, Class of 1982, the scholarship is given to an incoming first-year student or upperclassman from the state of Illinois and preferably to those from Peoria County, Illinois. The student must be outstanding in character, scholarship, personality, and leadership. The financial need of the student is taken into consideration.

Dr. L. John and Margaret K. Vogel Endowed Scholarship Fund: Established by Dr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Vogel '66 and Dr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Vogel '72, the fund honors their parents. It is used to provide financial assistance to an entering freshman with high-quality academic achievement.

Ivan Wiles Scholarship: This scholarship is awarded to an entering freshman and may be continued with the same student for four years. Ivan L. Wiles, Class of 1922, was a mathematics and psychology major whose automotive career led to him being named General Manager of the Buick Motor Division and then Executive Vice-President of General Motors. He was a member of the Wabash College Board of Trustees from 1952-1981 (and its President from 1958-1965). He received the Alumni Award of Merit and an Honorary LLD from Wabash.

Mary E. Wilson Memorial Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by Frederick W. Wilson, Jr., Class of 1969, in honor of his mother.

Robert H. Winter, MD '60 and Nancy R. Winter Endowed Scholarship: This scholarship is awarded annually to a student in biology.

Scholarship and Tuition Awards from Endowment

Besides the scholarships previously described, which are assigned on the basis of terms set forth in the supporting funds, the College offers a number of scholarships financed from endowment. These are available to assist students of unusual promise who otherwise would be unable to attend Wabash. To establish eligibility students must file Financial Aid applications with the College Scholarship Service each year. Awards vary in number and value from year to year and are related always to the need of the individual. These awards may continue throughout the student's college course, provided that he maintains a satisfactory college record and that his need for assistance continues. In granting these scholarships and tuition awards, the Financial Aid Committee takes into consideration four principal criteria:

1. The extent of need.
2. Academic record.
3. Personality, character, and qualities of leadership.
4. Excellence in student activities.

The income from the following funds contributes to the support of the program described in the preceding paragraph:

Byron Randolph Russell and Edward Payson Ames Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by Elsie R. Ames in memory of her father, Byron Randolph Russell (Class of 1872), and her husband, Edward Payson Ames, Class of 1871.

Georgia F. Arnkens Memorial Fund: The fund was established in memory of Conrad Arnkens, Class of 1953, by his widow, to be used for poor, needy and deserving students.

Ruth M. Asbury Scholarship Fund: The fund was established by the wills of Max Asbury, Class of 1931, and his wife Ruth.

Athens City Scholarship Fund: The scholarship was established by members of the Crawfordsville Wabash Club.

George M. Baldwin Fund: Established by Colonel George M. Frazor, the fund is to be used to meet the financial needs of a worthy student.

Dr. Rudolph C. Bambas Scholarship Fund: This fund was established by his wife, Frieda Bambas, in honor of Dr. Bambas, Class of 1937. He had an outstanding academic life as a professor of English and was a loyal alumnus all his life. The Bambas Fund is a permanent part of the Endowment Fund.

Robert J. Beck-James D. Price Scholarship: This scholarship was established in memory of Robert J. Beck, Class of 1920, by his friends and by his associates in Thomson McKinnon Securities, Inc., and in honor of James D. Price, Class of 1960, by Alex S. Carroll.

Lawrence and Velma Dill Scholarship: Created in 2002 by their sons, G. Michael Dill '71 and J. Mark Dill '75, the fund provides scholarship assistance to all Wabash students who are graduates of Jasper and Warren county high schools. This scholarship is to be awarded without regard to financial need. The Dill Scholarship is a financially variable scholarship and will be awarded to all eligible candidates on an equal basis.

Joseph Foster Memorial Scholarship: This scholarship was established by Russell Foster Abdill in memory of his grandfather, Joseph Foster.

Theodore C. Frazer Scholarship: This scholarship is supported by a fund bequeathed to Wabash by Ada W. Frazer of Warsaw, Indiana, in memory of her husband, Theodore C. Frazer, who graduated from Wabash in 1903. The income from the fund provides scholarships for students selected by the scholarship committee of the College on the basis of academic record, citizenship, and the need for financial assistance. Preference is given to applicants who are residents of Kosciusko County.

Donald C. Frist Scholarships: This scholarship was established by Enid F. Lemstra in memory of her brother, who was a member of the Class of 1920.

Ira D. Goss Scholarship Fund: This fund provides scholarships to deserving students who need assistance to attend Wabash College, with favorable consideration being given to men from Fulton County, Indiana. Mr. Goss was a member of the Class of 1903.

Theodore G. Gronert Scholarship: established in memory of Professor Gronert by his former students, particularly those from the Class of 1935, the scholarship is granted at the start of each academic year to a freshman selected by the Dean of the College and the Director of Financial Aid. Such factors as personal character, financial circumstances, interest in history, leadership in high school, and community service are considered.

William H. (W1938) and Margaret R. Hamlin Scholarship Fund: This fund was endowed by a bequest from Mrs. Hamlin.

Frederick Rich Henshaw, Jr. (W1920) Fund: This fund was given to Wabash by his father.

Hollett Family Scholarship Fund: This fund was established in memory of John E. Hollett, Jr., Class of 1928, by his sons, John E. Hollett III, Class of 1959, and Thomas S. Hollett, Class of 1956, and by his brother, Byron P. Hollett, Class of 1936. The income from the fund is granted to a needy student who combines above average academic achievement with high promise of achievement in extracurricular activities.

Inland Container Corporation Scholarship: Established by the Inland Container Corporation Foundation, Inc., income from the fund supports the College's general scholarship fund.

George and Yvonne Kendall Fund: This scholarship was established by a bequest from Mrs. Kendall. George Kendall was Dean of the College (1923-1940), Dean of the Faculty (1944-1957), and Milligan Professor of English (1920-1957).

Annie Crim Leavenworth was the first woman to hold the rank of Assistant Professor and one of the first French professors at Wabash.

Erminie C. Leonardis Theater History Award: This award is presented annually to a student who, in the estimation of the Theater Department faculty, has done outstanding work in the study of theater history, dramatic literature or criticism. The award was established in memory of Erminie C. Leonardis (1915-1994) by her cousins, Lucille Gentile and Lucille Fraumeni, and her life-long friend, James Fisher, Wabash College Professor of Theater.

George A. Lipsky Memorial Award: This prize is designed to recognize that student who most closely represents the characteristics of excellence that were possessed by George A. Lipsky, chair of the Political Science Department from 1967-1971. The award will be predicated on the student's breadth of learning, not merely in the field of political science, but in the disciplines within the liberal arts curriculum as well; the student's commitment to humane and civilized values; and the student's ability to analyze and evaluate contemporary social issues.

George D. Lovell Award: The Lovell Award is presented annually to a junior or senior who has exhibited significant academic achievement in social studies. This award is provided by income from a fund established in 1986 by family, friends, colleagues, and former students of Dr. Lovell, long-time chairman of Division III, chairman of the Psychology Department, and Beesley Distinguished Professor. The recipient is chosen by the Chair of Division III and the Dean of Students, with preference, when appropriate, for a minority student with financial need.

George Lewes Mackintosh Memorial Fund: Established by the late James Putnam Goodrich in memory of the sixth president of the College, the fund provides scholarships to six graduating seniors each year, without regard to need, who will be going on to graduate or professional schools. The recipients of the scholarships are designated as Mackintosh Fellows. Selection is made by a committee of the College upon departmental recommendations.

Malcolm X Institute Merit Awards: These prizes are given annually to those seniors who, in the judgment of the Director, have made significant contributions to the Malcolm X Institute during their tenure at Wabash College.

McLain Prize in Classics: Endowed in 1965 by a gift from an anonymous friend of the College and of the Classics, the prize provides an annual cash award to the member of the senior class whose achievement in Greek and Latin or in the Classics has been the most distinguished. The prize honors the memory of Henry Zwingli McLain, a professor of Greek and Secretary of the Faculty, 1874-1907.

Caleb Mills Award in Education: Honoring the memory of the founder of the public school system, Caleb Mills, the prize is awarded annually to a member of the graduating class whose achievement and contribution to teacher education and student teaching have been the most distinguished. The recipient is usually committed to public school teaching.

John N. Mills Prize in Religion: In honor of her husband, John N. Mills, Class of 1878, Mrs. Mabel M. Mills established a fund, the income from which is to be awarded to the three students of the junior class who rank highest in an examination of the English Bible. The awards are given to those who have done excellent work in religion courses, including courses on the Bible, in the Department of Religion.

John N. Mills Fellowship: This award is to be used for graduate study, and made to a senior who has done excellent work in the Religion Department.

R. Robert Mitchum Glee Club Leadership Award: This annual award is presented to a member of the Glee Club who, in the judgment of the Director, demonstrates leadership qualities in the efforts of the Glee Club. The award is derived from the R. Robert Mitchum Glee Club Endowment established by former Glee Club members to remember his great contributions to the Wabash Glee Club. Robert Mitchum H'59 served as Director of the Glee Club for 22 years starting in 1947.

Joseph O'Rourke, Jr. Prize in Speech: The O'Rourke Prize recognizes the best senior project as determined by the faculty of the Rhetoric Department. The senior project program was initiated by Professor O'Rourke H'65 in the 1970s, and the prize, funded by members of the O'Rourke family and friends, honors this program and other contributions by Professor O'Rourke to teaching and learning during his 37 years of service to Wabash College.

Patterson-Goldberger Freshman Journalism Award: This award was established by Professor of English Thomas P. Campbell and his family, and is presented to the member of the freshman class who, in the opinion of the Board of Publications, has contributed most significantly to journalism in his first year at Wabash College. The prize honors Thomas McDonald Patterson, 1865, who owned Denver's Rocky Mountain News, and Alexander Goldberger, 1925, who as chairman of the Board of Publications while a student at Wabash established the College as a member of Pi Delta Epsilon national journalism society.

David W. Peck Medal: The Peck Medal is awarded each year by the President of the College to a Wabash senior and to a practicing attorney to recognize "promise or eminence in the law." The Peck Medal is made possible by a gift of John P. Collett in recognition of Mr. Peck's distinguished career as lawyer and judge. Mr. Peck was a member of the Class of 1922.

Robert O. Petty Prize in Writing: Established by Dr. W. Franklin Harris (Class of 1964) in memory of Dr. Petty, Professor of Biology at Wabash from 1959-1990, is given annually to encourage and recognize student writing that draws on the fertile boundary of the sciences and the humanities. An ecologist, as well as a poet and nature writer, Professor Petty held that "only at the margins of knowledge can we discover some essential, critical perspective of the field we labor in, and come to a better definition of what lies at the center..." His quest for a truer perception of our place in nature and nature's place in us was what mattered most.

Phi Beta Kappa Prize: The Phi Beta Kappa Prize was established to encourage original work of high creative and scholarly merit, as distinct from proficiency in normal course work. It is a cash prize given annually by the Wabash chapter of Phi Beta Kappa to that undergraduate who is judged to have produced the most original and meritorious piece of work, whether artistic or analytical. Nominations of student contributions are made by the members of the entire teaching faculty, and the entries are judged by a special committee of the Chapter.

The Physics Department Writing Prize: This award was established by the Physics Department to encourage and reward quality writing in physics. It is given to the physics student who, in the judgment of the Physics Department, has written a paper on original experimental or theoretical work that demonstrates the highest standards of scientific writing. The prize will be a physics book selected by the department, and the student's name will be added to a plaque displayed in Goodrich Hall.

J. Crawford Polley Prize in Mathematics: Offered annually by the mathematics department for meritorious work by a student in mathematical writing and problem solving, the prize honors J. Crawford Polley H'33, who was professor of mathematics at Wabash from 1929-1966. Work considered for the prize includes short articles and interesting problems with elegant solutions. Entries are judged on their mathematical content and expository style.

Distinguished Senior in Psychology Award: This prize is given to the senior Psychology major who best represents the department's ideal for outstanding research, scholarship, and service.

Richard O. Ristine Law Award: Presented each year at the Peck Awards Banquet to one or more individuals in recognition of their contributions to Wabash and the practice of the law, the award is named in honor of a man whose service to both Wabash and the law is inspiring. Ristine graduated from Wabash, summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, in 1941. He attended the Columbia University Law School and received his degree in 1943. The recipients of the Richard O. Ristine Law Award shall be honored for a love for the law and a love for Wabash that Richard O. Ristine spent a lifetime upholding.

Benjamin A. Rogge Memorial Award: This award is made to that academically outstanding member of the senior class who best articulates the free-market philosophy and ideals of Ben Rogge H'53. The winner is selected by the Economics Department and the Rogge Memorial Committee.

Lewis Salter Memorial Award: Established by the Class of 1990, the award is given to that member of the junior class who best exemplifies the characteristics of scholarship, character, leadership, and service Dr. Lewis Salter H'57 embodied as a Wabash faculty member and as Wabash's 12th president.

Stephen Schmutte Prize: Awarded for the outstanding student paper in economics, the prize shall be presented each year to the student paper which, in the judgment of the department, best reflects the qualities of cogent analysis and clarity of exposition which were the hallmarks of Stephen Schmutte '66, a dedicated and very effective teacher in the department from 1968 to 2000.

Senior Award of Merit: Awarded annually by the Student Senate in conjunction with the National Association of Wabash Men, the prize is given to the senior who, throughout his years at Wabash College, has demonstrated outstanding achievement in scholarship, service, and extracurricular activities. The award is particularly meaningful in that the entire nominating process and final selection of the recipient are performed solely by Wabash students. The honor is truly a reflection of the beliefs of the recipient's peers.

N. Ryan Shaw II Award: This award, in the form of a Wabash captain's chair, is presented annually to the senior chosen by the Political Science Department as the department's outstanding major. The award is given by Virginia J. Shaw in memory of her husband, a member of the Class of 1953.

Warren Wright Shearer Prize in Economics: The Shearer Prize is presented annually to that student who, by vote of the faculty of the Economics Department, has the best command of economic theory. This prize is established to recognize the contributions made by Warren Wright Shearer '36 in his long years of service to Wabash College. As an economist and a teacher of economics, he demanded of himself and his students a thorough mastery of the analytical tools of the economist.

Frank H. Sparks Award: The Sparks Award is given annually to a senior "who has done much during the past year to promote the true spirit and purpose of Wabash College." Selection is made by the Dean of Students and the Dean of the College. Such factors as general attitude, participation in extracurricular activities and athletics, scholarship, and all-around personal achievement are considered.

Dean Stephens Award: A memorial to Dean Stephens, a member of the Wabash College coaching staff who was killed in an airplane accident in October 1958, the award is given annually to that member of the junior class who best reflects the broad intellectual and personal interests, the high moral courage, and the humane concerns of Dean Stephens himself.

Stephens-Hall Senior Scholarship: This scholarship was established in memory of Waldo Stephens H'72 and Scott Keith and Andrew David Hall, and is presented each spring to a deserving senior of demonstrated worth who plans to continue his education.

Norman E. Treves Science Award: Established by Dr. Norman Treves, Class of 1915, the Treves Award is annually awarded to a member of the senior class concentrating in Division I, selected by the faculty of that division, who has shown the greatest progress academically and as an individual during his junior year.

Underwood Award: This prize is presented annually to the junior student majoring in chemistry who, in the opinion of the department, is most deserving. The cash award was established by Mr. J. E. Underwood, Jr. and Caroline Underwood in memory of their mother and father, Julius E. "Jude" Underwood, Sr., Class of 1911.

Pete Vaughan Award: The Pete Vaughan Award is presented annually by the National Association of Wabash Men to the outstanding athlete of the year. This award recognizes the 30 years of distinguished service that Robert E. (Pete) Vaughan H'54 gave to Wabash College as a coach and athletic director.

Wall Street Journal Award: This award given annually to the senior economics major who has exhibited the best analytical ability in his major field. The recipient is selected by vote of the Economics Department faculty. The award consists of a one-year subscription to the Wall Street Journal plus an appropriate engraved paperweight.

Wedgeworth Lilly Library Research, Scholarship & Creativity Awards: These awards are funded by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wedgeworth '59. Mr. Wedgeworth, an emeritus member of the Wabash College Board of Trustees (an Active Trustee from 1998 to 2005), served as President of ProLiteracy Worldwide, University Librarian and Professor of Library Administration and Professor of Library and Information Science at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (UI), Dean of the School of Library Service at Columbia University, and the Executive Director of the American Library Association. He was nominated by President Obama to serve on the National Museum and Library Services Board of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities.

William Nelson White Scholarship Award: This prize was established in 1998 by Luke White '34 and W.N. White Farms Inc. to honor the memory of Luke's father, William Nelson White, a lawyer in Covington, Indiana. The recipient of the scholarship shall be a senior selected by the College on the basis of scholarship, personal integrity, and an understanding of the professional requirements of the practice of law.

Eliot Churchill Williams Fund: This endowed fund was established by family and friends in memory of Professor Williams H'53, who served the College and the Biology Department from 1948-1983. The endowment supports the Eliot Churchill Williams Undergraduate Prize, awarded to an undergraduate student who is majoring in biology.
