

Wabash

might be the best school in America.

Only one school made all these lists:

- #2 Best Alumni Network
- #3 Best Internship Opportunities
- #4 Best College Newspaper
- #5 Best Career Services
- #5 Professors Get High Marks
- #5 Best Health Services
- #6 Most Accessible Professors
- #7 Most Active Student Government
- #9 Best Classroom Experience
- #9 Students Love Their School Teams
- #11 Great Financial Aid
- #17 Lots of Race/Class Interaction
- #20 Best Run Colleges
- #21 Best College Theater
- #23 Students Love These Colleges

(Source: The Princeton Review, 2023 edition)

Plus:

- #9 on the 2022 list of Best Liberal Arts Colleges (degreechoices.com)
- A Top-10 School with the Happiest and Most Successful Alumni (Forbes)
- 26 Wabash Programs were ranked in the top-15 percent nationally (College Factual)
- A Top-25 Value School (U.S. News & World Report)
- A Top College in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, and Ireland (2023 Fiske Guide to Colleges)
- Best Colleges in America (Money)

What you want to do, who you want to be, and how you define success is all in your hands.

Wabash isn't for everyone. It's for truly passionate and determined students who want to push out of their comfort zones and attain goals that others only dream of.

Does Wabash rank among the top schools in America in many categories?

Yes.

Does Wabash have nationally ranked faculty and academic programs?

Yes.

Does Wabash win championships, break records, and dominate athletically?

Yes.

The potential for true success is within reach. Are you up for it? If so, schedule a campus visit soon.

Learn more.

Top-ranked majors, small classes, professors who are in your corner, and one-of-a-kind WabashX programs give you real-world experience.

Whatever your major, it will be among the top-ranked programs in the nation. The quality of teaching and mentoring you get here makes a HUGE difference in what you learn and the impact on your future success.

There's a reason we get high marks for accessible, excellent faculty: Professors are mentors and students' biggest supporters.

Every Wabash professor holds the highest degree in their field, so you're taught by experts. More importantly, these experts love teaching undergraduates. They provide research opportunities and connect students to internships. We have a fantastic student-to-faculty ratio of 10:1 and our average class size is 13 students. Wabash professors really get to know you and can write strong recommendation letters for jobs or grad schools.

“What surprised me most about the Wabash faculty was how open they are with students. They will never turn down a chance to talk with you about an assignment or about an upcoming test. They love to help students and to connect with them, which was hard for me to realize at first. They are really there to help you more than anything.”
— Abe Wade '22

There's a reason our graduates are successful: You'll be ready for leadership because you will gain a big-picture education — taking courses in business, science, computer programming, language, literature, art, history, philosophy, and mathematics. You will do more than listen to lectures; you'll get a deep, hands-on education in which you, your classmates, and professors discuss, debate, grapple with, and research concepts that lay the groundwork to succeed in any career.

There's a reason Wabash has such high acceptance rates to med school, law school, engineering, and MBA programs: We don't take short cuts, and neither will you — you can't and won't want to hide in the back row in ways that are possible at bigger schools. When you graduate, you will confidently excel because your Wabash education was challenging, supportive, and personalized.

Top 25

Wabash is the only Indiana college to make CBS Moneywatch's top-25 list for best professors.

Great Professors

Everyone loves our professors, and not just our students. The Princeton Review gives our professors a 98 rating for accessibility and a 96 for interest, while the Fiske Guide to Colleges singled out our professors' passion. No matter what courses you are in, you'll find great classroom experiences here.

65%

Students who speak with professors outside of class on a weekly basis.

100%

Every Wabash professor holds a Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree.

94%

Medical school acceptance rate.

96%

Law school acceptance rate.

10:1

Student to faculty ratio.

40+ Majors

All ranked Wabash majors are among the top-17% of the nation's nearly 2,600 four-year colleges with several in the top 1%.***

- Accounting (Pipeline Program)
- Art
- Asian Studies (Minor)
- Biochemistry
- Biology
- Black Studies (Minor)
- Business (Minor)
- Chemistry
- Classics
- Computer Science
- Economics
- Education Studies (Minor)
- Engineering (Dual-Degree)
- English
- Environmental Studies (Minor)
- Film and Digital Media (Minor)
- Financial Economics
- French
- Gender Studies (Minor)
- German
- Global Health (Minor)
- Greek
- Hispanic Studies
- History
- Humanities
- Latin
- Mathematics
- Modern Languages
- Multicultural American Studies (Minor)
- Music
- Neuroscience (Minor)
- Philosophy
- Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE)
- Physics
- Political Science
- Pre-Law (Pre-Professional Program)
- Pre-Medicine (Pre-Professional Program)
- Psychology
- Religion
- Rhetoric
- Spanish
- Theater

*College Factual

WabashX is high impact experiential learning

- Democracy and Public Discourse (Leadership through communication and community engagement)
- Global Health Initiative (Transforming students to have global and local impact)
- Center of Innovation, Business, and Entrepreneurship (Develop business, consulting, and entrepreneurial skills)

Degree partnerships

- DePaul University Driehaus College of Business
- Purdue U., Columbia U., or Washington U. in St. Louis (Engineering Dual-Degree)
- Indiana University Kelley School of Business
- Indiana University McKinney School of Law
- Indiana University Bloomington Maurer School of Law
- Indiana University O'Neill School of Public Affairs
- University of Notre Dame Mendoza College of Business

WabashX, immersion learning trips, and study abroad make it possible for Wabash students to:

- Teach in Memphis public schools
- Serve in Ugandan hospitals
- Write nonprofit grants
- Study infectious diseases in Peru
- Conduct fieldwork in Paris
- Meet med-tech industry leaders
- Research invertebrates in Belize
- Read ancient texts in Rome
- Facilitate conversations on race on other college campuses
- Debate in Moot Court
- Study religion in Israel
- Rewrite county health ordinances
- Engage in research in German museums
- Analyze data for city mayors

“During the summer after my freshman year, I worked closely with alum Dr. Sean Sharma at the Fountain and Warren County Health Department developing a plan of action to combat the mental health crisis. I have never had a more gratifying experience in my life. To be able to get a first-hand look into some of the problems rural communities face across America was something that just isn’t possible to get in the classroom. I learned that no matter who you are there is always a way to make a difference in the life of someone else.”
— Eric Lakomek ’21

Earn more.

Because of the best career services and alumni network.

Wabash alumni earn among the highest salaries in the nation (and earn the respect of their personal and professional peers). A majority land jobs and are admitted to graduate or professional schools before they graduate. The combination of outstanding career services, as well as an unbeatable alumni network, and top-ranked internship opportunities gives our students a phenomenal advantage.

There's a reason we're ranked among the best schools for internships and career services:

We start you on your professional future step-by-step from freshman through senior year. Even before you arrive, we help you build your résumé and LinkedIn profile. Connecting you with opportunity is what we do on campus and off — across Indiana and in Chicago, New York City, Washington, D.C., Denver, and Los Angeles. We help you discover what's possible through professional immersion trips, employment and graduate school fairs, networking events, and internships that are open to all students.

There's a reason we have among the very best alumni network:

Our students achieve success because our alumni help them land positions at places like Goldman Sachs, JPMorgan Chase, Deloitte, PwC, and Eli Lilly. Alumni conduct mock interviews, lead graduate school exam boot camps, write letters of recommendation, host students in their homes, and even donate the shirts off their backs to ensure Wabash men have every opportunity to succeed. (Check out our innovative Suit Closet that allows students to look their best for interviews.)

“The alumni network was the biggest benefit in coming to Wabash. Not only did it help me land two internships, it gave me access to thousands of adults who would drop everything at a moment's notice to help me. It is one thing to talk about the brotherhood at Wabash College, it is another to truly experience it.”
— David Riggs '20

93%

Wabash humanities majors employed or in graduate school within three months of graduation. That's twice the national average in half the time.

$143,800

The median mid-career salary of a Wabash graduate (49th nationally, 1st among schools in the GLCA and ACM).

Top-Three Percent

Wabash College ranked 65th nationally among 1,978 schools in PayScale.com's Return on Investment report.

99.2%

Over the last five years, Wabash graduates have settled into their post-graduation jobs or grad schools within six months. The national average is 59%.

#2

Best Alumni Network.*

#3

Best Internship Opportunities.*

#5

Best Career Services.*

*The Princeton Review

Recent Wabash students and graduates have interned or been hired by:

Goldman
Sachs
Microsoft
IBM
Netflix
Smithsonian
Teach for America

American Basketball
Association
Angie's List
AT&T
Bank of America
Cancer Treatment
Centers of America
Cigna
Cincinnati Orchestra

Deloitte Consulting
Edward Jones
Eli Lilly and Company
Environmental Protection Agency
Epic Systems
Indianapolis Motor Speedway
Infosys
JPMorgan Chase

Liberty Mutual
Merrill Lynch
Microsoft
Museum of Science and Industry
Mutual of Omaha
NFL Network
Peace Corps
PricewaterhouseCoopers

Professional Golfers'
Association (PGA)
Salesforce
Target
Toyota
U.S. Army
United Airlines
Valspar
Walt Disney World

Recent graduates are pursuing graduate and professional studies at:

Columbia University
Duke University
MIT
Stanford
University
UCLA
Washington University

Cornell University
DePaul University
Georgetown University
Indiana University
New York University
Northwestern University
Parsons School of Design
Purdue University
University of Edinburgh

University of Michigan
University of North Carolina
at Chapel Hill
University of Notre Dame
University of Oxford University of Southern California
University of Wisconsin
U-Penn Wharton School

Lead more.

Because there's no back row at Wabash.

The Wabash way is learning how to think for yourself—anywhere, anytime, about anything. It's why Wabash men achieve in every field. Not just a few graduates, but the majority. Whether that means working on Saturday Night Live or in the NFL, selling your paintings to Kanye West and Elton John, going to Duke Medical School, or succeeding in Fortune 500 companies, Silicon Valley, or Hollywood.

There's a reason you're likely to become a leader here.

The advantage of an environment like Wabash, where self-governance is a way of life, is that students have abundant opportunities to develop their leadership skills in classes and labs, on the field and stage, in clubs and organizations, at Wabash and beyond. Here are just a few of the opportunities and paths a Wabash education will open for you.

Notice our similarities.

Rogeno Malone '20 made two trips to France and made a discovery – that people across the world are more alike than different – and that perspective helped him land a job at Goldman Sachs upon graduation. “Instead of noting the differences in places, I now notice the similarities,” he says. “In returning to France the second time, it took away that tourist bias. You notice the commonalities, of how similar it looks. That extends deeper to the connections we have in life. We might be from separate backgrounds, but we're pretty similar as people.”

Gain the confidence to ask questions.

“Walking through London is like walking through history. The opportunity abroad motivated us to create our best work and reinforced the trust our professors had in us to succeed outside of the classroom. Immersion trips are a humbling and adrenaline-filled experience. They inspire you to ask questions. To go to a new place, to learn about a new culture, and to immerse yourself in the greater world, you develop an appreciation and the confidence to ask those questions.”
— Jake Paige '23

Be a Better Person.

“At Wabash, we strive to be better people, not just better students.”
— Mylo Thambipillay '22

Intern with the NFL Network.

Through his internship with the NFL Network in Los Angeles, Jaleel Grandberry '19 discovered sports journalism. As a rhetoric major and a creative writing minor, he was able to turn his love of playing football into a career.

Co-direct TEDxWabashCollege.

Launched and executed annually by Wabash students, our TEDx brings together speakers from across the country to share their innovative ideas and stories with Wabash students, faculty, and staff, as well as the greater Crawfordsville and Indianapolis communities.

Direct and stage your own play.

Our Fine Arts Center includes two theaters — the 370-seat proscenium Ball Theater with a computerized lighting system and sophisticated sound equipment and a black box theater for more flexible staging and seating.

Share your experiences.

“The natural flow of conversation at Wabash means people are instinctively interested in what you've learned, not just where you've been. It makes a trip like mine to Iceland easy to share. Students know to ask, ‘how did that relate to the class?’ That reflection shows the importance of trips like this and how lucky we are to go. That experience just sticks with you.”
— Isaac Wynne '19

Thrive under pressure

“Going to Wabash speeds the maturation process. Learning how to talk to adults and being able to relate to adults, especially when I was 18 or 19, helped immensely. Wabash has given me great communication skills.”
— Josh Myers '22, who has worked as an EMT in his hometown of New Castle, IN, since 2018.

Land a finance internship with Eli Lilly, Goldman Sachs, or JPMorganChase.

“Last summer, I worked at Eli Lilly as a finance intern. During my time there, I relied heavily on my critical thinking ability, and I enjoyed being challenged on various independent and group assignments. I even had the opportunity to pitch a recommendation for a case study to the CFO.”
— Simran Sandhu, '20

“You belong at Wabash.
This place is very welcoming,
and there are so many people here who will reach out a hand and help make this place feel like home.”
— Jose Marquez-Franco '22

1 in 10

Wabash graduates holds the title of CEO, chairman, president, vice president, director, founder, or owner.

#9

Happiest and Most Successful Alumni, according to Forbes.

26

The number of Fulbright Scholarships awarded to Wabash students since 2014.

9

Rhodes Scholars (Butler, DePauw, Earlham, Hanover, and Purdue have nine combined).

14,000

Among our successful alumni are a Nobel-nominated AIDS researcher, a state attorney general, a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, a Mayo Clinic oncologist, a U.S. senator, a pioneering spine surgeon, an NFL record holder, a federal judge, an Emmy- and Tony Award-winning designer, and a vice president of the United States.

Play more.

A lacrosse player in a white and red uniform is running on a green field. He is wearing a white helmet with a face mask and is holding a lacrosse stick. The background shows other players and a red and white striped fence.

Because we bring our A-Game to everything we do.

As one of our coaches says, "We offer a Big Ten atmosphere on a smaller, academic campus. Most places are afraid of that athletic energy. We embrace it." The difference is, at Wabash, intense athletic spirit is never at the expense of your education. And while on the surface it might seem like our school spirit comes from athletics, if you go to a play, or a Glee Club performance, you feel it just as strongly.

There's a reason fans pack our stadiums.

If you want to compete at the highest levels, you can't beat Wabash. We won the first intercollegiate baseball, football, and basketball games ever played in Indiana, and we've been living up to our motto — Wabash Always Fights! — ever since. Our teams consistently out-work their rivals (but no one skips class to come to practice). In the last 11 years, Wabash has won 24 conference championships and our student-athletes have won 10 individual national championships and earned 944 all-conference honors. One year, we claimed an unprecedented five conference championships in a single calendar year (making us the only North Coast Athletic Conference team in history to do so).

There's a reason we call ourselves a brotherhood.

"When I first came to Wabash, I was welcomed by a community of students, faculty, staff, and coaches who showed that they genuinely cared. They welcomed me with open arms and pushed me over the last four years to be the best version of myself that I can be. Wabash doesn't beat around the bush. Guys will tell you, straight up, that it is going to be hard here, but you're going to love it. Wabash was the perfect place for me to mold, develop and grow as a man."
— Leo Warbington '22

49%
Wabash students who are also varsity athletes.

190
Team championships won.

443
All-Americans.

36
Academic All-Americans.

703
Football victories, fifth all-time in NCAA Division III history.

678
All-time dual meet wrestling victories.

38
Track and Field All-Americans since 2010.

#7 Great Intramurals

The Princeton Review ranks Wabash as a place where everyone plays intramural sports.

Intercollegiate Teams

Baseball
Basketball
Cross Country
Football
Golf
Indoor Track & Field
Lacrosse
Outdoor Track & Field
Soccer
Swimming and Diving
Tennis
Volleyball
Wrestling

Intramural and Club Sports

Basketball
Dodgeball
Flag Football
Kickball
Rugby (Club Sport)
Soccer
Softball

70

Clubs and organizations.

10

National fraternities.

20+

Varsity and intramural sports teams.

1 Rule

We live by the Gentlemen's Rule—
“The student is expected to conduct himself at all times, both on and off campus, as a gentlemen and responsible citizen.”

#4 Best College Newspaper

Published since 1908, The Bachelor is entirely student run and is honored to be recognized by The Princeton Review.

65 Acres

With state-of-the-art facilities like Hays Science Hall with equipment normally not seen by students until graduate school; Allen Athletics and Recreation Center, ranked among the nation's finest at any level, and our new $15-million Little Giant Stadium; the Lilly Library and 1832 Brew Espresso Bar; the Malcolm X Institute of Black Studies; and Wally's Restaurant and Pub, our campus is just big enough to get lost in and small enough to feel right at home.

$24 Million

Our investment in newly renovated residence halls and townhomes gives students options. College Hall, Martindale Hall, Morris Hall, Rogge Hall, Williams Hall, Wolcott Hall, Class of 1966 Lodge, Placher Lodge, Butler Townhome, and Seymour Townhome combine to provide singles, doubles, triples, and quads for residents— and all have common social areas and laundry facilities.

5 Campus favorites

1 Cheering for Wabash at the Monon Bell Classic.

One of the best rivalries in all of college sports, our historic football game against DePauw has been played for more than 125 years.

2 Chapel Talks.

Members of the Wabash community take to the Pioneer Chapel podium each week to share ideas, thoughts, and personal experiences.

5

Dancing, dining, discussing —
At big-name concerts sponsored by fraternities, music festivals held by international student groups, off-campus formals, and special faculty dinners.

4

Singing, acting, sharing your research and ideas.
Through multiple arts and performance groups, as well as the annual Celebration of Student Research, Scholarship, and Creative Work; Biology, Chemistry, and Experimental Psychology Poster Sessions; and Moot Court.

3

Running and biking our scenic trails.
Explore the many beautiful parts of Crawfordsville that surround the Wabash campus.

We don't settle. Why should you?

There's a reason we rank as a Best-Run College (The Princeton Review), Top 50 Best Value College (Forbes and Money), Top 100 in the Nation (US News), and among the Happiest and Most Successful Alumni (Forbes).

Founded in 1832 by several Dartmouth College graduates and Midwestern leaders, we have continually delivered one of the most valuable educations available. We graduate not only successful men, but men of character: men who challenge one another to do great things for themselves, for Wabash, and for the world. We are looking for students who want more than to be average. We are looking for young men who want their dreams to be taken seriously — and who are ready to become leaders in all aspects of their lives.

Wabash Helps You Develop

In addition to an outstanding education, professional development begins right away as your classroom learning is integrated with the skill-building and experiences that make our graduates the ones employers and graduate schools want. Add in top notch career services, an exceptional alumni network, along with extensive internship opportunities, and it's clear that Wabash is a great investment.

"The first time I stepped on campus, I fell in love with it. Wabash wasn't like other colleges I visited. I didn't feel like a number. Everyone was welcoming and made me feel like I mattered, like I was a part of something bigger. Wabash felt like family."
— Devin Vanyo '22

98%
of students receive financial assistance.

32%
of students are first-generation college students.

26%
of students are Pell Grant eligible.

$26.8 Million
in academic scholarships and grants were awarded in 2021–22 to admitted students.

Costs:
Tuition: $46,600
Room & Board: $11,750
Fees: $875
Total: $59,225

Return on Your Investment

At Wabash, you'll receive a transformational and affordable education. DegreeChoices.com ranked us #9 among national liberal arts schools in how quickly students recoup their investment and their long-term earnings compared with other college graduates. Money ranked us #17 for quality, affordability, and student outcomes, while The Princeton Review, U.S. News & World Report, and Forbes annually list us as a top value school.

Welcome class of 2026

Senior Bench

Commonly known as the Senior Bench, this campus landmark was officially dedicated as the Thomson Bench in 1905. Since then, it has become a centerpiece for student interaction, a blank canvas awaiting the next message — delivered in paint!

You owe it to yourself to learn more about our high-reward, high-value education.

40%

Wabash alumni who give back to the college. That figure ranks in the top-10 nationally for liberal arts colleges. Wabash alums have given back at this rate or better for nine consecutive years.

We Reward Talent

The extraordinary generosity of Wabash alumni and friends enables us to maintain outstanding merit scholarships and a robust need-based program. Ninety-eight percent of our students receive some form of merit- or need-based aid. In fact, we awarded nearly $27 million in aid to our students in 2021–22. Our historic tradition of philanthropy makes an excellent Wabash education affordable. It one of the reasons we have “Great Financial Aid,” according to The Princeton Review.

Important Dates

Early Decision

- Application Deadline: November 15
- Decision Mailed by: December 5
- Deposit Due: January 15

Early Action

- Application Deadline: December 1
- Decision Mailed: December 31
- Deposit Due: May 1

Regular Admission

- Application Deadline: January 15
- Decisions Mailed: Rolling starting January 18
- Deposit Due: May 1

FAFSA Information

Recommended Filing Deadline: January 15
FAFSA Available: October 1
<https://fafsa.gov/>
Wabash Federal School Code: 001844

W.

Learn more. Earn more.
Lead more. Play more.

Schedule a visit or apply at wabash.edu

Enrollment Office
301 W. Wabash Avenue
Crawfordsville, Indiana 47933
800.345.5385
admissions@wabash.edu