Application for Admission

Wabash College, a college for men in the state of Indiana, while exempted from Subpart C of Title IX regulation with respect to its admissions and recruitment activities, admits male students and gives equal access to its scholarships, programs, and facilities without regard to race, color, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, or physical or other disabilities.

In order to apply for admission to Wabash College, you must complete both Part 1 and Part 2 of the Application for Admission and have the High School Report completed by your guidance officer or college counselor. The $40.00 non-refundable application fee or the signature of a Wabash alumnus must be included when you mail your application.

Part 1 of your application should be submitted as early as possible to enable our staff to give your application maximum attention. You may enclose Part 2 of your application when you send in Part 1 or you may send it separately. Early submission of your application will increase your opportunity for merit-based scholarships. Admissions requirements and high school preparation information may be obtained at www.wabash.edu or by calling 800-345-5385. Qualified applicants will be offered admission according to the options listed below, as space is available.

Early Decision
An Early Decision application allows you to complete the entire admission process early. This option means you have completed your college search and have decided to attend Wabash College if you are admitted. Your application receives priority consideration throughout the admission process, including the awarding of any and all applicable merit-based scholarships.

Early Action
Under this process, notification of your admission status will be mailed to you between December 18-26, 2015. In addition to the advantage of the early notification of your admission status, your application will have priority over applications received later in the admission process. You also will be considered for all available merit-based scholarships.

Regular Application
This process applies to any application received between December 02, 2015 and January 15, 2016. By using this option, you will receive normal admission consideration and will be considered for all available merit-based scholarships. Under this process, notification of your admission status will be mailed to you on February 1.

*A complete application includes Part 1, Part 2, and a High School Report and must be received by one of the application deadlines shown above.

Applying for Admission Online
In order to apply to Wabash College online, visit www.wabash.edu and complete the Application for Admission online. You will need to have the High School Report completed by your guidance officer or college counselor.

Applying for Need-Based Financial Aid
If you are interested in applying for need-based financial aid, you should file both the 2016-2017 College Scholarship Service's PROFILE and the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by February 15, 2016. Please contact our Financial Aid Office if you need more information regarding these forms at (800) 718-9746.

Early Decision Application

What Is Early Decision?
Early Decision is an admission option designed for students for whom Wabash College is their first choice and who are waiting on acceptance only from Wabash to conclude their college search. This is a binding agreement.

Early Decision Benefits:
- Admission decision and applicable scholarship award(s) mailed December 1, 2015
- Priority consideration for merit-based scholarships
- Four-year financial aid planning projection

Financial Aid Applications:
Students planning to apply for financial aid need to complete the following applications by the posted deadlines.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Application</th>
<th>URL</th>
<th>Code</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>

The Early Decision financial aid award is based upon the student’s estimated 2015 financial data and is contingent upon the submission of the FAFSA, which must be filed after January 1, 2016. Any differences in the financial aid information or the late filing of the FAFSA could result in an adjustment to the Early Decision financial aid award.

If you wish to apply under the Early Decision Option, complete and sign in the bottom section of this form by November 6, 2015 and return with the rest of your application for admission.
