College is demanding but Wabash has many support services to help students. Learn about the Writing Center, Quantitative Skills Center, Supplemental Instruction, time management and study skills support, and disability services.

Pre-Law Chat

Interested in the Pre-Law Program? Meet Wabash’s Pre-Law Advisor and learn more of how Wabash prepares students for law school and beyond.

Study Abroad and Immersion Opportunities

Wabash students have opportunities to study abroad, participate in an international or domestic immersion experience, and earn fellowships to work or study overseas. These rewarding, life-changing opportunities wouldn't be possible without dedicated resources. Hear from our professional staff and faculty on how they help students make their international interests a reality.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Today's world needs leaders who see diversity as a cornerstone for relevance and effectiveness. Come learn about Wabash's commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging on campus as recognized by $5.5 million in grants from Lilly Endowment to promote retention, graduation, and success of young men.

WabashX Programs

WabashX includes high-impact, experiential learning programs at the forefront of business innovation, global health, civic leadership, and digital media. Come learn which co-curricular opportunity is best for your interests!

- Center for Innovation, Business & Entrepreneurship (CIBE) teaches entrepreneurial and business skills, and provides the tools to be innovative leaders.
- In Wabash Democracy & Public Discourse (WDPD), students learn to participate in and lead deliberation, discussion, debate, and advocacy. The initiative equips leaders to stimulate productive conversations in communities to solve problems.
- The Global Health Initiative (GHI) provides curricular and experiential opportunities to transform the way students think about health.
- Digital Arts and Human Values (DAHV) seeks to advance our understanding of how digital media and its congruent culture can reflect and shape our values constructively for the enrichment of society.
