

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT HOUSING AT WABASH COLLEGE

Housing 101

You Have Options

10 independent residence halls
10 national fraternities

Students are required to live in campus housing—a fraternity or residence hall—all four years. Living on campus helps students adjust to the rigors of academic life and provides opportunities for social events and intramural sports.

Independent Living

Residence Halls: College Hall, Martindale Hall, Morris Hall, North Lodge, Placher Lodge, Rogge Hall, Williams Hall, Wolcott Hall, Butler Townhome, and Seymour Townhome

There are plenty of options—from single rooms to doubles, triples, and quads—with many having its own bathroom. All have common social areas and free laundry facilities. There are no dedicated freshman dorms, so independents are in the middle of the campus community immediately. Independent upperclassmen can also apply to live in townhomes that are more like apartment-style living. Men eat in the Sparks Center and have a choice of two meal plans.

Greek Life

Fraternities: Beta Theta Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Chi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Theta Delta Chi

Fraternities typically have various recruitment, social, and outreach events on and off campus throughout the year. During Admitted Student Days, students have the opportunity to visit fraternities and get to know members. The recruitment process, known as Rush, begins once a student is admitted and fraternities may recruit prospective students until classes start. Students will receive a bid, which is a formal invitation to a prospective student to join a fraternity; a student may accept, hold, or decline.

45%
of students
are independents

55%
of students
go Greek

Wabash.

Where will I eat?

Independent students eat in the Sparks Center with food provided by Bon Appetit. Students can choose either a 15- or 19-meal plan per week. Those on the 19-meal plan have access to every meal prepared throughout the week: breakfast, lunch, and dinner Monday through Friday and brunch and dinner Saturdays and Sundays. Most students choose the 15-meal plan.

Fraternity men eat in-house often on a 15-meal plan. Some fraternities have campus cooks, others work directly with local providers. Food and kitchen access is also available between meals and on the weekends.

Who can I contact?

Have more questions about independent living or joining a fraternity? Reach out to these housing leaders, whether it be resident assistants or fraternity presidents:

College Hall	Jack Heldt	jtheldt23@wabash.edu
Martindale Hall	Zach McKinney	zmmckinn22@wabash.edu
Morris Hall	Wes Slaughter	weslaugh21@wabash.edu
Rogge Hall	James Despain	jrdespai22@wabash.edu
Williams Hall	Jackson Garrett	jkgarret21@wabash.edu
Wolcott Hall	Max Cobos	mecobos21@wabash.edu
Beta Theta Pi	Nick Caputo	njcaputo22@wabash.edu
Delta Tau Delta	Issac Temores	itemore22@wabash.edu
Kappa Sigma	Matthias Einterz	mbeinter22@wabash.edu
Lambda Chi Alpha	Nick Goode	nkgoode22@wabash.edu
Phi Delta Theta	Reagan Perkins	rjperkin22@wabash.edu
Phi Gamma Delta	Adam Berg	apberg22@wabash.edu
Phi Kappa Psi	Trystin Harrison	tjharris22@wabash.edu
Sigma Chi	Cade Cox	cicox23@wabash.edu
Tau Kappa Epsilon	Jacob Price	jrprice22@wabash.edu
Theta Delta Chi	Lincoln Scott	plscott23@wabash.edu

Mark your calendar

Don't forget to meet the housing deadline.

Students who pay enrollment deposits on or before April 12 receive early access to the housing application. Priority for housing assignments is based upon date the enrollment deposit is paid.

April 12: Housing application becomes available to deposited students

June 30: Housing application due via the New Student Road Map

July 19: Incoming students are notified of their fall housing assignment via the New Student Roadmap.

Wabash.

Questions? Visit wabash.edu/studentlife/residence