

LOAN REPAYMENT

Assistance Program

We can help you pay back your student and parent loans.

Introducing our innovative Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP) — if your income after graduation is $56,000 per year or less we can help you pay back your federal, private, and parent PLUS loans.

Follow your dreams, both on campus and after graduation, without the burden of debt.

Wabash.

Your Future Secured

The Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP) is a financial safety-net we offer at no cost to you or your family. LRAP is one more way we help you achieve your long-term goals from the day you step foot on campus, until you are earning a stable income after graduation, confident that educational loans won't hold you back from a successful future.

HOW TO GET LRAP

This is one more way we invest in your success at no additional cost to you.

- Apply and be admitted Early Decision to Wabash College.
- Submit your $350 enrollment deposit by January 15, 2023.
- Review and sign your LRAP Award.
- Enroll and graduate from our college with a bachelor's degree.
- Work at least an average of 30 hours per week in any profession, including multiple jobs (if needed).
- Begin repaying your federal, private alternative or parent PLUS loans.

This is only a summary. Please see your specific LRAP Award for full details.
