Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends:

A little over a year ago, we challenged Wabash's alumni and friends to demonstrate that there is "Strength in Numbers."

Wabash's numbers have never been large — 90 faculty, 900 students, and a few more than 10,000 alumni. We are a small college with a relatively small base of support. Yet together we defined the true meaning of Little Giants and the collective impact of all our gifts helped the College achieve new heights.

In this Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers for 2007-2008, I'm pleased to extend to you my gratitude on behalf of all of the students, faculty, and staff who live and learn at Wabash.

Gifts from alumni and friends allowed Wabash to reach a milestone in the Annual Fund. More than 4,400 of you invested in our mission of educating young men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely. We set our goal high and we surpassed it with gifts of more than $3.1 million — the highest Annual Fund total in Wabash history. By doing so, we also reached — a year ahead of schedule — the Hays Challenge. Trustee Tom Hays '55 responded with a gift of an additional $1 million in support of student scholarships and financial aid.

But Wabash's alumni and friends do more than write checks. You reach out to prospective students at your local high schools, churches, Boy Scout troops, and community agencies. You attend "W Nights" with representatives from our Admissions Office to help potential students and their families fully realize the value of a Wabash education. Hundreds of you give your time to work in your local communities during WABASH Day weekends. And you provide students internships and career networking opportunities that are unparalleled in higher education.

The Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers recognizes the people who make the remarkable Wabash liberal arts experience possible for our young men. Our students are grateful for all that you do to make their education possible, and for demonstrating for them the true spirit of philanthropy. They learn from your actions, and as a result they will become leaders in their professions and communities.

All of you are examples of our mission played out in the lives of thousands of loyal and dedicated alumni and friends. For that, I simply say "thank you."

Sincerely,

Patrick E. White
President

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Wabash College:

This was a record year for Wabash College: Record enrollment, record applications for admission and, thanks to you, a record $3.1 million Annual Fund!

Our friend and trustee Tom Hays '55 challenged us to grow the Annual Fund to $3 million by 2009. Why wait until 2009? You responded in ways beyond our imagination and completed the challenge in one year. Mr. Hays has now generously committed $1 million to our general scholarship fund!

For the fourth consecutive year more Wabash alumni, parents, students, faculty, and friends — over 4,000 of you — invested in our mission to educate men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

A recent Forbes.com ranking of the nation's best colleges and universities, based primarily on measures of student satisfaction, is one example of the return on your investment. Wabash College was ranked 12th among all American institutions of higher learning, outranking MIT, University of Chicago, Middlebury, and Stanford, among others.

Wabash students value — and clearly benefit from — their education, the faculty who teach them, and the range of opportunities available to them outside the classroom. All of which is a direct result of your generous gifts.

We must work together to ensure these experiences for our students each and every year. Your gifts to Wabash College in 2007-2008 were historic. Our challenge in 2008-2009 is to once again re-write the College history books and provide our students one of the best educational experiences in the country.

With 11,000 living alumni and thousands of parents, friends, faculty and staff, $3.1 million and 4,000 names listed in this honor roll of donors just scratches the surface. Imagine the possibilities if those numbers were higher.

Please join us again this year in making an investment in our mission and the young men who benefit from it. Please encourage your friends and classmates whose names do not appear on the accompanying lists to stand up and be counted with you.

On behalf of our students, faculty, and staff please accept our thanks and gratitude for your generous financial gifts and commitment of time for our College. You are all Some Little Giants!

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Emmick '92
Dean for Advancement

Dear Alumni, Friends, and Parents,

The 2007-2008 fiscal year was very interesting for Wabash College. On one hand, we enjoyed enrollment in excess of 900 students and a financial aid discount rate that was less than projected; our Annual Fund exceeded $3 million for the first time in history; and we invested significant dollars in capital projects.

On the other hand, we experienced a very difficult financial market, but the good news is that our endowment out-performed its benchmark for the year. Overall, even in a down market, Wabash College remains financially strong. The financial highlights for the year ended June 30, 2008 are as follows. (Please see financial statement at the end of this letter.)

Tuition revenues for the year totaled in excess of $23.1 million. To help our students afford the cost of education, they received over $14.8 million in financial aid. Much of this aid was subsidized from outside sources, including endowed scholarships ($2.94 million), restricted gifts ($.34 million), federal and state governments ($2.02 million), and other outside sources ($.82 million). With these subsidies for our students, the net tuition discount rate was approximately 36 percent, a two percent decrease from the previous year.

The endowment value at June 30, 2008 was in excess of $367 million, including all Funds Held in Trust by Others. This was a decrease of approximately $46 million or 11 percent after distributions to operations. The endowment benefited from $2.46 million in new gifts during the year. Even with the decline in the market value, the endowment contributed over $16.2 million of support for the operations of the College and $2.94 million for endowed student scholarships.

Total gifting to the College was in excess of $7.09 million. The Annual Fund contributed in excess of $3.098 million of the gifting revenue, an increase of over $300,000. Given that student revenues covered slightly more than 40 percent of the total operating costs, the Annual Fund is an important source of support for the men of Wabash.

It was another normal year for construction on the Wabash campus. During the 2007-08 year, the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity house was completed; renovations in the Delta Tau Delta house were completed; and the Kappa Sigma house was razed and construction on a brand new structure was started. In addition to the fraternity projects, a new facility to house the Wabash Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology and Religion was constructed and dedicated on the site where Kingery Hall once stood. Plans are also being completed for renovations to the outdoor athletic facilities on the campus.

If you put all of these projects into a year that included a Strategic Planning process, as well as a Master Planning process, you can see that many of us have had a busy, yet enjoyable year. This work is made all the more meaningful by the men of Wabash who continue to show their love and passion for their education, their lives outside the classroom, and their alma mater. Thank you for your continued support of these young men.

Sincerely,

Larry B. Griffith
Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

Dear Alumni and Friends:

As Chairman of the 1832 Society, I want to thank you for your philanthropic leadership during the 2007-2008 giving year. (Please see the 1832 Society donor lists at the end of this letter.)

In 2007-2008, we celebrated the 175th anniversary of the founding of Wabash College. When reflecting on our storied history, we are reminded of the extraordinary generosity of many alumni and friends over the years. What is most impressive about our rich history is the strength we muster in a small number of 1832 Society members — like those listed in this Honor Roll — who demonstrate their leadership and loyalty by supporting Wabash students with gifts of $1,000 or more.

During the past year, members of the 1832 Society helped the College's Annual Fund reach more than $3,104,200 in unrestricted support of Wabash students — the biggest year ever for the Annual Fund!

Your annual 1832 Society gifts help provide current Wabash students with innovative teaching and learning experiences, life-changing international immersion learning programs, and first-rate career placement and graduate school preparation opportunities.

During the upcoming 2008-2009 fiscal year we will again work together to grow membership in the 1832 Society. I hope you will again answer our call to renew and increase your philanthropic leadership support of Wabash students. In doing so you will demonstrate your belief in the College's mission of educating Wabash men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

Sincerely,

Kevin G. Clifford '77
Chairman, 1832 Society

Dear Wabash Alumni and Friends:

During the 175th anniversary of the founding of Wabash College, we challenged you to think about how our collective support of the College can provide unprecedented opportunities for Wabash students.

I am happy to report that more than 4,480 alumni, parents, and friends — whose names are recognized in this 2007-2008 Honor Roll — supported the mission of the College with a gift to the Annual Fund. Together we demonstrated there is strength in numbers by contributing $3,104,282 in unrestricted support — the most ever contributed to the Annual Fund! This represents a 12.5 percent increase in unrestricted dollars and a four percent increase in alumni participation over fiscal 2007. (Donors to the Annual Fund are listed at the end of this letter.)

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff who study and work on the campus every day, I thank you for your generous and continued support and participation.

We will again ask you to join together with us in growing the Wabash Annual Fund in size and strength this year. I hope you will answer our call in this new fiscal year to renew and increase your support of Wabash students.

Sincerely,

G. Michael Dill '71
National Chairman
Wabash College Annual Fund

Dear Friends,

For over 175 years, alumni, family, and friends have believed in the power and role of Wabash College and have toiled to insure that our College remains strong in every way.

Over 4,000 of you backed that commitment up with a gift to the College in 2007-2008. You made a statement with over $3,000,000 in annual gifts that you want your College to operate from a position of strength. You backed that pledge up with action. (Please see links to class giving information at the end of this letter.)

Thanks for all you do for Wabash,

Tom Runge '71
Director of Alumni and Parent Relations

WABASH COLLEGE

Kane Society

1

The William P. Kane Society honors and recognizes Wabash College's friends and alumni who have supported the College through a planned gift including trusts, annuities, pooled income funds, life insurance, bequests, and qualified retirement plans. Active members consist of those who have disclosed their planned gifts to Wabash during their lifetimes. In Memorium members consist of those who have provided for Wabash and are no longer living. William P. Kane was president of Wabash College from 1899-1906.

WABASH COLLEGE

Presidents Club

1

In 1987, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wabash College established a special forum for those men and women who give a tangible expression of their deep and continuing commitment to the future of Wabash College through lifetime giving to the College of $100,000 or more. In addition to outright gifts, other avenues for funding a Presidents Club gift to the College include trusts, annuities, pooled income funds, life insurance, bequests, and qualified retirement plans.

Dear Wabash Friends:

As I prepare this Volunteer Honor Roll, I am thinking back over a very busy year, a sometimes frantic year, grateful for the opportunity to pause and say thanks to each and every individual who committed some of his, or her, time to Wabash. More than 4,000 times last year, a Wabash alumnus, friend, or parent said "Yes, I'll help." In some cases help was a crucial piece of information, a contact name perhaps, provided by a Wabash alumnus to Scott Crawford in the Schroeder Center for Career Development, opening a door for a student to spend a summer exploring a career option. Sometimes help required a bigger commitment of time, a morning spent with young men in the top 10% of their classes, hearing about Wabash from alumni in their own communities – or a golf game played with a graduating senior who wanted to learn how to conduct "business" on the golf course. And sometimes, it was an even bigger commitment, like that made by members of the National Association of Wabash men, returning to campus at their own expense three times each year, representing all alumni and finding ways to involve them in the lives of students and this institution. (See links to volunteer lists at the bottom of this page.)

We know how important volunteers are to the Admissions effort; without your referrals, you representing us at College Fairs, your simple phone call to the family of a wavering prospect, making the match and closing the deal with prospective students would be much more difficult. We know that Wabash men put together spectacular reunions; witness the enthusiasm Jim Millikin and his classmate volunteers brought to the job of bringing back members of the Class of 1968, resulting in a record 80 classmates attending their 40th reunion this year! We're grateful to men like Steve Goldsmith'68, Max Servies'58, Rick Gunderman '83, and each of the other Big Bash Colloquium speakers for sharing their life stories and challenging us to think about issues important to them.

Sometimes the volunteers in our midst are nearly invisible – the scorekeepers and timers at the basketball games, the alumni who greet parents of new freshman on that first Saturday, the fraternity advisers who show up here in moments of crisis. I am awed by the number of Wabash attorneys (and their attorney spouses!) who come here not just once, but several times, in the fall to tutor our Moot Court participants, again to judge them in preliminary rounds, and once more to fete them at the Awards dinner. These are often the same individuals who return in the spring to attend the Peck Awards Dinner, honoring outstanding achievement by our pre-law students. And these attorneys don't even bill us!

While our 16% volunteer participation rate is quite good, there is always room for improvement. Wabash students learn early that they stand on the shoulders of giants. You are those giants. We trust that you will continue to mentor, inspire, support, and nurture Wabash students with your volunteer time. They – and all of us on campus – are grateful!

Sincerely,

Nancy J. Doemel
Senior Advancement Officer and Coordinator of Volunteer Services

National Association of Wabash Men

The National Association of Wabash Men (NAWM) is the alumni association of Wabash College to which all alumni, as defined by the College, are members. The NAWM Board of Directors is the Association's governing body whose mission is to help facilitate integration of the College's alumni, students, administration, parents, faculty, and friends in order to help the Association achieve its goals and ultimately help the College achieve its mission of "educating men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely."
