September 26-28

Thursday, September 26, 2019

11:00 AM – Chapel Sing

Watch as the Class of 2023 participates in this annual rite of passage.

4:45 PM - 40th Annual LaFollette Lecture, Salter Hall, Fine Arts Center

The LaFollette Lecture Series was established by the Wabash College Board of Trustees to honor Charles D. LaFollette, their longtime colleague on the Board. A successful businessman, Mr. LaFollette was a devoted friend of the humanities and the arts. The LaFollette Lecture is given annually by a Wabash College faculty member who is charged to address the relation of his or her special discipline to the humanities, broadly conceived. A reception will follow in Littell Lobby.

Event is free and open to the public.

Saturday, September 28, 2019

8:00 AM – Class Agent Forum,
Location TBA

10:00 AM – Kane Society
President's Reception, Caleb Mills
House

11:00 AM – Alumni Chapel, Pioneer
Chapel

The annual Homecoming Alumni Chapel, celebrated in the spirit of Barney Hollett '36, represents the general meeting of the National Association of Wabash Men, and the time we honor Wabash men and women for their contributions to the College and their communities.
