Gentlemen: [with Wabash and the hymn/lullaby Still, Still, Still on my mind]

Still, Fifty-four years ago, we immersed ourselves in Wabash College, an institution still extraordinary in so many ways. Certainly, physically recognizable, and as a facility, more functional than ever. Still focused on educating young men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely. Still blessed with an accessible, teaching-focused faculty. Still offering opportunities to learn and grow outside the classroom, alongside whomever (fraternity brothers or housing unit buddies, fellow athletes, musicians, etc., some of whom become friends for life). Those of us who have had the pleasure of getting to know President Scott Feller in recent years can attest that the College is still well led.

Still, As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be – Wabash needs support. As in our student era, present-day tuition still provides roughly half the cost of a Wabash education. The balance comes from the generosity of alumni and others. Envelope enclosed, for those end-of-calendar-year givers. For those 50-plus of us residing in Indiana, thanks to IC 6-3-3-5 (origin: 1963), the State of Indiana still will bear as much as $200 of a $400 gift to Wabash College. Hoosiers, don't let that credit go untapped. Those living elsewhere might or might not get a tax break.

Still. With 2022 slipping away, let's find time to be still, to count our blessings and give and receive love from those most important to us.

With best wishes for 2023,

Sincerely yours,

P.S. Ways to give: (A) Use the enclosed envelope or mail your gift to Wabash College / Advancement Office / 301 W. Wabash Ave. / Crawfordsville, IN 47933; gifts by mail must be postmarked by 12/31; (B) securely online at wabash.edu/give by midnight EST on 12/31; or (C) before 3 PM EST on 12/31, call 877-743-4545.
