

Class of 1985
Class Agent Letter
July 2023

Dear Class of 1985:

From Pam Rager, Wabash College Alumni Office:

John Dimos, 60 of Valparaiso, passed away Thursday, July 6th, 2023. He was born October 1st, 1962, in Gary, IN to John and Marianne (Fosse) Dimos. John graduated from Merrillville High School, received his bachelor's degree from Wabash College, earned his master's degree from the University of Cincinnati, and pursued his PhD at the University of Illinois Chicago. John proudly made his career as a self-employed Certified Industrial Hygienist for over 30 years. In recent years, he was committed to focusing on industry education and worker training. John was certified by OSHA and had membership with the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists. John was a lover of all the arts and a music aficionado. When he wasn't at work, John loved playing the drums, attending concerts, and experiencing music of all genres. Being a constant learner, he was an asset to any trivia team. He was an animal lover who frequently checked in on the family dogs, often requesting to be supplied with new pictures and updates on their well-being. John never met an animal he didn't love, including the deer, fox, and wild turkeys that visited his home. He even became fond of the pesky groundhog in his yard. The generous, kind hearted, and thoughtful person that John was carried across all aspects of his life. He would often go out of his way to do something special and meaningful for you, without any expectations in return. It's just who John was. He was always thinking of others. As a son, brother, uncle, friend, and colleague, you could find no one better than John. John is survived by his brother, Chris (Theresa) Dimos; sister-in-law, Kathy Dimos; nieces and nephews: Stephanie (Sam Brown) Dimos, Jennifer Dimos, Jonathan Dimos, Drew (Rebecca Stanley) Dimos, and Trace Dimos; along with many extended family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, John & Marianne, and brother, Jim Dimos.
