Good afternoon Class of 2006,

News from Our Classmates

Ross McKee: After 22 years of dedicated service, Ross has retired from the Army. He remains busy serving with the Indianapolis Fire Department, where he has worked for the past 14 years. Ross also founded a nonprofit that helps veterans in the fire service obtain or increase their VA disability ratings. If you could use his help—or would like to support this important work—please reach out to Ross.

Michael Matsey: Michael and his wife, Vincenza Scianna, welcomed their first child, Leo David Matsey, on May 22, 2026. Please join us in congratulating Michael and Vincenza on their wonderful new addition!

Matt Dudevoir: Matt and his family returned to Tampa Bay in March 2026 after he completed battalion command in the Army Reserve. He is now serving his second tour at U.S. Special Operations Command headquarters. It is great to have an update from Matt and to see his continued service recognized.

Looking Back at Our Fall Freshman-Year

- Sigma Chi brought the Chapel Sing crown back home during the Homecoming festivities.
- In a game to remember, Mark Server kicked the winning field goal in overtime to give Wabash a 46–43 victory over Wittenberg. The win snapped Wittenberg's 30-game NCAC winning streak and its 36-game home winning streak.
- Wabash also came together for several community service efforts, including the MUFFY drive, which raised nearly $5,000 in donations.
- We celebrated the dedication and official opening of MXI.
- Campus welcomed visits from Fox News political analyst Juan Williams and former Indiana Secretary of State Sue Ann Gilroy.
- Our freshman year also brought serious conversations, as both the nation and our campus debated whether the United States should launch a preemptive attack on Iraq.

Get Ready for the Bell Game

Bell Game tickets are now on sale! With its stadium under construction, the school to the south will host this year's game at Ball State's football field. This will be just the eighth neutral-site meeting between the teams—and the first since November 25, 1922. Purchase tickets here, and stay tuned for details about viewing parties around the country. We hope you can join in the fun!

With regards,

Jeff Sostak
