

Wabash Class of 1963

June 24, 2018

Fellow Classmates and Surviving Spouses:

Here's a quickie to get it out before the end of the College's Fiscal year ending June 30. Wabash is doing a good job keeping everyone informed about the College in general, and it's our duty as Class Agents to focus on our Class of '63. Due to no time left before June 30, this email is all about reminding those who haven't sent any contribution in these last 12 months to hopefully do so now.

Since I'm at the keyboard, here's an update on me (skip to the end if you find it boring!). Betty and I are in our 55th year and going strong. Son Scott is a VC in San Francisco (www.sherpavc.com) with two granddaughters and wife Nina. They are moving to LA from SF where the girls, Chase, 15 and Chloe, 13 will attend Brentwood. Daughter Stacy is in Indianapolis with three grandsons and husband Jeff. Their oldest, Mac, pitched for Michigan for four years and was drafted by the Mets. He's now with the Brooklyn Cyclones (adjoining Coney Island) in their minor A team. Middle son, Alan, will be a junior at Miami (of Ohio) in their Farmer School of Business. (He initially went to DePauw in their business honors program and varsity baseball, and escaped to Miami in a transfer. (Greencastle too small; DePauw too same-o-same-o!) One more case "for don't send your son (grandson) to DePauw"! Third grandson, Scott, will be a sophomore at North Central and you guess, pitching baseball. Betty is volunteering with her latest board commitment, Teachers Treasures that gives school necessities to teachers for their underprivileged students rather than using their own money. I'm still working full time with our early stage business where I bring the average age up about 20 years! We're connecting families through photo and voice sharing to bring families together, initially when a loved one is in a senior community. (www.sherishconnect.com) We'll be adding Home Health and finally seniors living alone at home, a 20 million market of lonely seniors who don't want to leave their homes.

So here's the pitch. If your name is not on the attached list, the College, as of June 23, doesn't have you in the Honor Roll of Annual Fund donors. It's time to make a donation if you are so inclined. The three easy ways to donate ($50 or $5 thousand, it does not make any difference for our Class of 63 giving percentage):
