Dear Classmates:

Both good news and bad news to share with you.

Firstly, it's hard to imagine but we are actually gearing up and preparing for our 35th WABASH COLLEGE REUNION! How could that be?? But yes, our 35th Reunion is going to be a grand event and one that you will want to attend. So let's mark your calendars now for May 31, 2019 through June 2, 2019 and block off the entire weekend. Show as your calendar entry "AT WABASH COLLEGE" for your 35th reunion, it's that simple. Tell your family members no to count on you being around that weekend, but that instead you will be reliving old times in Crawfordsville, Indiana. And that maybe someone will need to drive you home afterwards.

Online registration (www.wabash.edu/bigbash) for Big Bash will be open the first week of January 2019. The registration fee ($10) will be waived for those who register prior to March 1. Be one of the first to register and let's encourage each other to do the same.

Secondly, I am sad to report that we lost a good and dear friend on July 18th, with the death of Burk McCarthy, '84. Burk was of course a member of the Delt House and indeed a quiet and gentle soul that will be sorely missed. Everyone that knew Burk liked him and I can't imagine Burk making a single enemy his whole life. But a Wabash man, through and through, he was and I would like to share his loss with you and honor his memory and legacy in true Wabash fashion. Here is a link to his obituary if you would like to know more. <https://obits.courierpress.com/obituaries/courierpress/obituary.aspx?n=burkley-mccarthy&pid=189652801&fhid=15542>

Killer, Bildo and I will have more information to share with you about our Reunion, so keep your eyes peeled for our emails and we can't wait to see everyone next summer!

Wabash Always Fights,
Wally
