Dear Class of 1992:

I wanted to give you some key updates at the College wraps up its fiscal year and looks forward to the fall.

Strive for 45

Wabash has chalked up some remarkable achievements in the past few years—except one.

We have never reached 45% alumni giving. Never. Not in our history.

At current count, we're just 412 donors from that goal.

We can do this!

But we need your help.

If just 9 new classmates in each class made a gift by June 30, we'd sail over this goal.

We'd land in the Top 10 liberal arts colleges and universities in the country.

Let's harness the power of the #1 alumni network so that we can provide our students a bright and secure return to a more normal Wabash experience this fall. They've shown us what Wabash Always Fights means. Let's show them that we have their back.

If you haven't given already this year, please consider giving now. You can make your gift by June 30 online at www.wabash.edu/give, by phone (877-743-4545), or by mail (301 W. Wabash Avenue, Crawfordsville IN 47933). Gifts must be made online by midnight on 6/30 or postmarked 6/30 or earlier to receive credit for this fiscal year. You can view the online honor roll of who has made a gift this year at www.wabash.edu/giving/honorroll.

Save the Date

We'll celebrate our 30th Reunion a year from now during Big Bash on the weekend of June 3-5, 2022. You'll receive more details in the fall.

A Return to "Normal"

With the country opening up, Wabash looks forward to a very busy fall where the College will dedicate a new stadium and induct alumni into the Athletics Hall of Fame at Homecoming, formally inaugurate Scott Feller as the 17th President, and finally host the 127th Monon Bell Classic. Check out the online calendar and the athletics calendar for events taking place.

Connect with Wabash

To connect the community during the pandemic, the Alumni Office launched an online hub called Whenever. Wherever. Wabash. where you'll find virtual discussions with professors, news, and even activities for the kids. Check it out at wabash.edu/www.

Refer a Student

A lot of us have kids in high school, so if you have a son or know of a junior or senior who might make an outstanding Wabash man, just fill out this simple online referral form to get the ball rolling.

Send us your News!

As we head into a reunion year, let us know what you're up to! Drop me a line or email alumni@wabash.edu with your updates.

Wabash Always Fights!
