April 2021

Classmates:

We hope this finds you well. It has been a crazy year. We wanted to share a few things with you.

Class Reunion

You recall our 25th reunion, which was originally scheduled for last year, had been postponed to this June. Due to the pandemic, the College issued a statement which changes the reunion plans for this year:

Big Announcement about Big Bash

To Alumni in Reunion Classes:

While this year's Big Bash in June will not occur in its traditional way due to the pandemic, we are providing other in-person opportunities this summer and fall to connect with your classmates, other alumni, and the College.

Remember that last year's Big Bash was postponed to this year, so those reunion classes are included in this plan. This year includes classes ending in 0, 1, 5, and 6. Please note the dates and activities below and be on the lookout for more information.

Saturday, June 5

After nearly 15 months of campus not being open to visitors, we are opening campus for part of this day. Please plan to come to campus, bring your family, and walk through buildings including the new Little Giant Stadium.

Saturday, September 11

Full day celebration of 50th reunion classes (classes of 1970 and 1971) and the Golden Little Giants.

Saturday, October 16

Tailgates for 5-year to 45-year reunion classes and the class of 1966.

We caught word that the College will launch its eighth Day of Giving on Thursday, April 8. You can support our students, unlock $520,000 in pledges, and help your living unit, sport, or club meet its goal as we go #AllForOneWabash.

Scott Simpson Tells the Story of Operation Frijoles

Scott Simpson has been working on a video concerning Operation Frijoles:

Over the last few months, I spent a lot of time researching Operation Frijoles and Jim Shanks. The end result is the attached film about Shanks and the 1965 heist.

This is just a rough cut of the movie. At some point in the future I'd love to add original music and professional narration. But for now, my wife and kids are tired of hearing about Jim Shanks, and I probably should take a little break.

I hope you enjoy my little movie. And if you wanted to share it with our class or with anybody else you think might enjoy it, I'm okay with that.

Great job Scott and thank you for sharing!

Jim Hawksworth elected NAWM Vice President

I am happy to report that Jim Hawksworth was elected NAWM Vice President! He will serve as Vice President for two years and then serve as President for two years. Congratulations Jim!

If you have any news to share with the class, please let us know. We hope you and your families are doing well.
