'07 Kids Lead the Class to 2nd Place at Alumni Chapel Sing

The Class of 2007 had 26 classmates return for Big Bash reunion weekend June 2-4. After carefully considering how we might compete against the 80 Wabash men who returned and competed in the annual Alumni Chapel Sing competition from the Class of 1967, we let the kids steal the show and snagged an honorable second place finish.

Reunion Giving Challenge a Success!

The Class of 2007 set a new giving record as 84 classmates made a gift to the college prior to our reunion weekend. This allowed us to win the Open Bar Challenge for the second consecutive reunion cycle and returning classmates enjoyed an open bar during our class dinner on June 3. With the fiscal year deadline coming up on June 30, we thought we'd try for one more milestone in celebration of our 10th year as Wabash alumni.

If 11 additional classmates make a gift prior to the fiscal year end of June 30, the Class of 2007 will have a 50% participation rate for the first time. That's a majority of the class!

Majority Giving Challenge

We will be reaching out over the next week with a gentle reminder regarding the fiscal year end on June 30. Remember, a gift of any amount counts! Giving online is easy at www.wabash.edu/giving/give
