December 2017

Dear Men of the Class of 2017,

It is crazy to think we haven't attended a Blix, Mikek, or Morillo class for almost 8 months now. We hope all is well and you're enjoying whatever vocational calling you're pursuing right now. We know you're succeeding in whatever you're doing though and we are glad you're representing Wabash in a positive light!

The purpose of this letter is to check in and see how things are going, but also to encourage a small donation to Wabash before years end. If there's one thing for certain about our class it's that we are competitive, and we hope you can foster that competitive spirit into our gifts campaign. Our goal is to beat all other classes in donation participation. We aren't asking for a large sum of money, just for participation so we can crush the other classes.

Most importantly, please reach out to us via text or email so we can check-in and see what you're up to. We want our class to stay as connected as possible to make the most of our time at Wabash and ensure our connections we made aren't lost.

With this being said, if you are currently in Indianapolis or the surrounding area could you please let us know! It would be great to get a group together every month or so to catch up, and possibly partake in some Wabash traditions, at a bar of course.

Enjoy the holiday season this December and have a great new year! We personally wrote this letter and hope you take our check-in seriously. Call, text, or email!

Sincerely,

Drew Biddle
