

GIFTS OF MUTUAL FUNDS

Gifts of Mutual Funds to Wabash College are a fine way to serve your philanthropic interests and to illustrate your loyalty to the College. Mutual Fund gifts also offer potential attractive tax benefits, but they can take considerably more time than for example, a simple stock transfer. Please consider these potential steps to make a mutual fund transfer:

1. Contact the Wabash Advancement Office at giving@wabash.edu or 877-743-4545 to let us know of the exact name of the mutual fund you would like to donate. We will check to see if our brokerage firm can hold that specific fund. If so, your mutual fund company can make a transfer right to Wabash's investment company - similar to a DTC transfer of stocks.
2. If our brokerage firm can hold the mutual fund, contact the shareholder customer service office at your mutual fund company to request that a transfer form be mailed or faxed to you, and follow their instructions. The company may request the following information about your transfer.

*Wabash College
Advancement Office
301 W. Wabash Ave.
Crawfordsville, IN 47933*

Wabash Federal Tax ID# 35-0868202

3. If Wabash's investment company cannot hold the fund, Wabash will have to open an account with your mutual fund company, and your company will have forms for you to complete to execute the transaction.

Once completed, you should send the following letter to assure that you receive proper credit for your gift.

Joseph Klen
Senior Associate Dean for College Advancement
Wabash College
301 W. Wabash Ave.
Crawfordsville, IN 47933

Dear Mr. Klen:

I have made a gift to Wabash College by completing transfer forms from my Mutual Fund company,
_____, to transfer _____ shares of _____.

This gift is intended for the Annual Fund (or other purpose).

Sincerely yours,

Your name _____
Class of _____

Wabash will issue an official gift receipt indicating the value of the gift on the day of the official transfer to the College's account. If you have questions about these instructions, please contact the Wabash Advancement Office at giving@wabash.edu or 877-743-4545.
